

COMMONS REDISTRIBUTION DEBATE IS HOT

U.S. Needed In World Court

Rotarians Here Urge Immediate Entry of States

Brilliant Oration By Dr. E. J. Anderson Promotes Convention Action

FINE WORK OF COURT PRAISED

Special Meeting of Convention Will Be Called to Discuss Subject

A resolution calling for the ratification of the three pending world court treaties by the United States Senate immediately will be considered by United States delegates attending the nineteenth annual Rotary convention here. A special meeting to consider the resolution will be called during the session.

This action was decided, on this morning following presentation of a resolution to this effect by Dr. E. J. Anderson, president of the Linfield College, Oregon, who gave a brilliant oration on the world court, describing its benefits and international work in settling numerous disputes which might have resulted in wars.

The resolution to go before the United States delegates points out that the world court since 1899, the present court is now established along lines favored by President Theodore Roosevelt in 1907, that both parties endorsed it in their platforms last June, and its endorsement would indicate the support of using peaceful substitutes for war.

IMMEDIATE APPROVAL
The resolution calls for ratification of the three pending treaties to complete the entry of United States into the world court at the earliest possible time.

Dr. Anderson dealt with the subject in detail, explaining the fallacy of the United States refusal to enter a body which had done so much for the peace of the world since its inception in recent years.

The resolution was not presented to the conference this morning in view of the fact that Canadian delegates could not vote on it, but will probably be presented to the United States delegates to-morrow. From indications this morning, it is probable it will pass without dissent.

OF VITAL INTEREST
This subject is one of vital interest to all of us," declared Dr. Anderson, stating that he had first become interested in world affairs during his residence in Shanghai and the Orient from 1917 to 1922.

"If a man from Mair could come down to this earth, I am sure he would get some rude shocks," the speaker asserted, drawing a contrast between the scenes of tranquility and peaceful trade which existed in Japan and China, prior to the present uprising. (Turn to Page 2, Col. 6)

WHEAT PRICE UP IN ONTARIO

London, Ont., May 22.—Wheat prices in this district are soaring close to the dollar mark. One miller reported to-day he had paid 90 cents on the local market, although the average price remains 85 cents. Reports show many farmers are withholding their supplies in anticipation of the price rising to a dollar.

Disarmament Conference Told That If Other Nations Act Against Aggressor Nation, Republic Will Give Up Neutrality Rights and Use Pressure to Restore Peace

Geneva, Switzerland, May 22.—President Roosevelt's peace message was translated into a programme of action at the Disarmament Conference here to-day when the United States virtually offered to abandon its traditional policy of isolation.

Norman H. Davis, United States ambassador-at-large, told the nations of the world his government would consult with them when peace is menaced. If the United States agrees with the other countries concerning the identity of an aggressor nation, he promised that Washington will refrain from any action of a nature to hinder collective efforts to restore peace. Referring to apprehension that Germany intends to rearm, he asserted that if any nation failed to give conclusive evidence of its pacific intentions and insisted on the right to rearm, "even though other powers make effective substantial steps toward disarmament, then the burden of responsibility for failure of the Disarmament Conference would rest on the shoulders of that nation." King Inquires If Commons Will Have Opportunity To Discuss Question; Premier Says He Will Make Statement Before Prorogation

Ottawa, May 22.—Premier Bennett will discuss in the Commons the attitude of the government in respect to titles. When the House opened to-day Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, questioned the government as to the recent answer by the ministry that the resolution handing titles passed in 1919 by the Commons was not binding on the present Parliament.

Mr. King also asked if Parliament would have an opportunity to discuss titles before any were recommended by the government. Mr. Bennett said he would reply to both interrogations at a later sitting. The government's reply to the original question last week had indicated the advancement of Sir George Perley in his order of knighthood was made in conformity with constitutional practice, said Mr. King, quoting that reply in full. In view of such a statement, he asked if it was the intention of the government that the principle which set forth that a resolution passed by the House of Commons in the lifetime of one Parliament was not binding on a subsequent Parliament, should relate to all resolutions or only to the one respecting titles. FOUR POWERS IN PEACE PLAN

Britain, France, Germany and Italy Endorse the Revised Mussolini Plan

Rome, May 22.—Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy have swung into line in support of Premier Mussolini's plan for the maintenance of European peace for ten years, untrammelled by desires to force their will on any other nation.

Informal agreement to a revised version of the four-power pact first proposed by the premier in March was given yesterday by the four nations. Although it was pointed out final decision rests with the government concerned, officials here confidently expect the pact will be signed promptly. The main points are: 1. Collaboration among the four powers to preserve peace for ten years, without intention to impose any solution on any smaller nations. 2. The statement that revision of post-war treaties is a possibility, but apparently with no intention of

NEW MINISTER WITHOUT VOTES

Mr. Dennies Can Hold Place in Cabinet Without Appeal to Electors

Answering comments of W. J. Bowser, K.C., it was stated at the Parliament Buildings, Saturday, that it is not necessary for Hon. W. M. Dennies, the new Minister of Labor, to be endorsed by the electors before he becomes a member of the Tolmie cabinet.

It was pointed out that in 1929 the B.C. Legislature passed legislation going away with the necessity of members seeking ratification at the polls on being made members of the cabinet. Some time ago during discussion on prospective changes in the Tolmie cabinet, it was pointed out that Premier Tolmie might go outside the party ranks to select men to become members of his government. Although the course would be unusual, they could continue in office for the life of the government, even though a session intervened, without making an appeal to the country. They would, however, be in the position of Ministers of the Crown, without a seat in the Legislature. In the case of Mr. Dennies it is likely he will fill the portfolio until the provincial election which it has been announced will be in September or October. Whether he remains as a minister of the Crown depends upon the outcome of the election. If the Tolmie Government is returned Mr. Dennies will retain his portfolio. If not he will be an ordinary member of the Legislature, providing he does not sink into political oblivion at the polls. (Turn to Page 2, Col. 4)

Tokio, May 22.—A Rengo (Japanese) news agency dispatch from the front in North China said the 14th Infantry Brigade of Major-Gen. Heijiro Hattori had occupied Tungchow, thirteen miles east of Peiping, Sunday night, and expected to enter the latter city to-day. Despite denials by Lieut. Gen. Kuniaki Kodo, chief of staff of Japanese continental armies, that his forces intended to occupy Peiping, Japanese columns swept on almost unopposed, apparently with no intention of

According to the information received, the man was shot by an officer who had followed Grabovitch from Nakina, where he is alleged to have broken into a railway car.

Japanese Delegation Hopeful of World Benefits, Says Ishii's Adviser

General Huang Fu Empowered to Act For Nanking at Peiping

"We are hopeful that the whole world will benefit from the achievements of the conference," declared Chorocho Kadono, adviser to Viscount Ishii, Japan's chief delegate to the World Economic Conference opening in London June 12, on his arrival here to-day from Tokyo. The approaching conference, Mr. Kadono believes, is a momentous one. It has within its grasp the solution of the world's economic troubles and much will depend upon its decisions. "We, as a delegation, have great expectations of the outcome of the conference," proceeded Mr. Kadono. "We intend to put our shoulder to the wheel and do our best to make it a success." Viscount Ishii, who recently landed at San Francisco, is now at Washington, D.C., and Mr. Kadono plans to join him at the U.S. capital. The party would leave Washington in time to stop at Peiping, and then to Peiping. (Turn to Page 2, Col. 4)

Ottawa, May 22.—A terrific crash, heard at Quyon, thirty-five miles northwest of this city, shortly after an airplane had been seen to fly north over the village, led villagers there to-day to fear the machine had fallen. Scores of residents of the district were engaged in a search of the area about the town in an effort to find some trace of the debris, but early this afternoon had not been successful in locating it.

WOODEN BRIDGE TO SPAN GORGE

A standard wooden bridge across the Gorge, costing about $4,000, will replace the one condemned, it was decided at a conference between the government and municipal officials of Esquimalt and Saanich this morning. The government has been asked to defray the cost of the span, while both municipalities will bear the cost of abutments.

Engineers had plans prepared for a steel structure costing approximately $14,000, but both municipalities rejected them on the grounds of no funds. (Turn to Page 2, Col. 7)

POLICE SEIZE LIQUOR SHIP

Two Vancouver Men and Craft Held Here To-day By Mounted Police Officers

Adversus Seizes Aldeen, Vancouver Craft, Off Cape Beale Early Yesterday

Following the seizure of the Vancouver boat Aldeen with 135 cases of Canadian liquor off the West Coast of Vancouver Island yesterday morning by Royal Canadian Mounted Police officers from Victoria on the new cutter Adversus, two Vancouver men, Walter Gadda, master mariner, 127 West Fifth Street, and Francis Frederick, are being held at Esquimalt to-day, awaiting instructions from Ottawa. The Aldeen, a typical British Columbia fishing boat, and her cargo of liquor were towed from the West Coast to Victoria by the Adversus. Both vessels tied up yesterday afternoon at the old Kingsland Wharf at the foot of Fort Street. There the liquor was removed from the craft and taken to a bonded customs warehouse, where it will be held. Corporal M. T. Burgess headed the police squad that went to the West Coast aboard the Adversus, Capt. Croft. The fast cutter came across the Aldeen. (Turn to Page 18, Col. 7)

London To Dictate When Election Will Be Held In Province

Must See What World Economic Conference Does Before Calling Election

Tolmie Reprimands Twigg For Announcing Election in September Or October

H. Despard Twigg, provincial organizer for the Conservative Party, had no authority from Premier Tolmie to make any statement in regard to the probable date of the coming election, the Premier stated this morning. Mr. Twigg was reported to have said the election would be held either in September or October. Premier Tolmie also stated he could recall no conversation with D. D. Pattullo, Liberal leader, promising an election before September and did not believe there was anything in writing to that effect.

Dr. Tolmie said the results of the World Economic Conference in London might change the entire aspect of the situation and he thought it advisable to wait and see what transpired in that conference before fixing the election date. The election would not be unduly delayed, however, he added. The London conference will open on June 16 and may last six months. The scheme of Hon. W. M. Dennies, Minister of Labor, of rotating labor and a thorough survey of employment conditions made, would become effective when times picked up, the Premier said, in reply to a question. EXCHANGE DOLLAR AT 87 CENTS TO-DAY

New York, May 22.—Canadian and British funds were steady in light trading on the New York foreign exchange market to-day. The pound closed about a cent below its best mark of the day, however, ending up at $3.99 for a gain of 1/16 cent. The Canadian dollar yielded an early gain of 3/16 of a cent to finish unchanged at 87 cents. Exchange quotations at noon to-day as reported to the Canadian Press were: Pound sterling in Montreal, $4.47 1/2; U.S. dollar in Montreal, $1.14 1/2; Canadian dollar in Paris, 19.23 francs; U.S. dollar in Paris, 22.07 francs. WOUNDED BANK HEAD GUARDED

J. W. Harriman, Who Stabbed Himself, Is in New York Hospital

New York, May 22.—Nurses and guards watched at the bedside of Joseph W. Harriman in a Mineola hospital to-day to prevent the sixty-eight-year-old indicted banker, who stabbed himself over the heart with a 50 cent knife, from making a second attempt at suicide. His life apparently saved because the knife struck a rib, Harriman was described by his physicians as "certainly not in a serious condition." Hospital authorities said the banker was resting comfortably two days after he had tried to kill himself in an obscure inn at nearby Roslyn, where he had gone after his disappearance from a nursing home. His trial on charges of falsifying records of the Harriman Trust Company and Trust Company was set for to-day. Harriman, who before he left the nursing home wrote four notes indicating suicidal intent, has been under indictment since April 6. He was charged with making fourteen false entries in the closed bank's records involving $1,661,170.

Start of Debate on Redistribution Sees Commons in Battling Mood; Totzke Objects to Schemes For Saskatchewan

Treated Worst Of All, He Declares

Liberal Leader Objects to Bennett Ministry Leaving Such Important Measures Till Session's Dying Days

Ottawa, May 22.—The Commons to-day plunged into debate on the redistribution bill, the last on the session's order paper, and possibly one of the most acrimonious. From the start the House was in a battling mood, with Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberals, making passing references to the government's "brute majority," and its apparent intention of passing the bill over the protests of the opposition. The Liberal leader clashed several times in the next fifteen minutes with Premier Bennett. Protesting against the government leaving such a highly important measure to the dying days of the session, Mr. King declared that to be prima facie evidence the government intended to exercise its majority in passing legislation through in the face of the minority. The House had resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the bill. FORMER GERRYMANDERS There was an ominous parallel between the present circumstances and the last time a gerrymander was made, said Mr. King, in 1892. The majority map had been passed through the Commons, and again in 1892, over the protest of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The present administration had adopted the practice of waiting until the closing days of the session before introducing its most contentious legislation, such as the Radio Act, the Shipping Act and the Redistribution Bill. The Opposition Leader reviewed the efforts of the last week to get the difficulties composed. CLOSURE THREAT In his statement respecting redistribution last week the Prime Minister, Mr. King said, had referred to the possibility of the government having to use "what is commonly called the brute majority." Mr. Bennett, who went on from that to say "but which constitutes the means by which, under democratic institutions, we carry on government." There had been too much talk of "the iron heel of ruthlessness" and "brute majority," said Mr. King, and he believed it was time the people were given an opportunity to register their opinion of this form of government. China's outstanding exhibit at Chicago Fair Brought By Ss. President Cleveland

Took Ten Years to Complete; Is Worth $1,000,000 and Is Four Feet High

China's outstanding exhibit at the Century of Progress Exposition at Chicago, "The Altar of the Green Jade Pagoda," valued at $1,000,000, was brought to Victoria aboard the Ss. President Cleveland to-day. This priceless specimen of ancient Chinese art is in charge of Chang Wen Ti, of Shanghai, its designer. The miniature green jade pagoda is a wonderful exemplification of the jade carvers' art in China. It is unique, inimitable and unequalled in the history of jade carving. The pagoda is fifty inches high and thirteen inches in diameter at its base, weighing about seventy-five pounds. SEVEN STORIES Although each of the seven stories and the main sections comprising them are separately carved, yet the interlocking joints are so perfectly fitted and with such mathematical accuracy, and the jade is so carefully matched, that the general effect is that of a carving from a solid piece of stone. Professor Urges Canada Aid China To Rebuild

FOUR POWERS IN PEACE PLAN
Ottawa, May 22.—Severe criticism of Canada's stand in the Japanese-Chinese situation, as expressed by Prof. C. H. Chubb at the Geneva conference early last winter, was voiced by Professor F. H. Soward of the University of British Columbia to-day. The Pacific Coast professor was speaking at the opening sitting of the two-day convention of the Canadian Historical Association.

Speaking on the Far Eastern crisis, Professor Soward declared that before Canada could assist China in her efforts to restore her shattered political and economic fabric, the way must be paved by reform of the Canadian immigration policy.

Priceless Green Jade Pagoda For Exhibition

Mr. Chang states that spectators at the exposition will marvel at the wonder of the pagoda, the exquisite green tints of the balconies, roofs and finials, and the alluring sheen of the Pacific. But only a connoisseur in jade art, he asserts, could appreciate the nature of the patient and exacting work. The four Chinese characters on the plaque over the entrance to the first floor of the pagoda set forth the spirit which inspired its conception. Translated into English they read: "Let your light shine in full radiance."

HANDLED WITH CARE
The temple is so delicate that the Chinese government requested that it be carried by hand when being transferred from ship to rail. This will be unnecessary when the company has arranged for an express car to be parked right alongside the ship at the Smith Cove terminals.

When Mr. Chang heard of this arrangement, he gave a sigh of relief. The exhibit, carefully packed in cases, was stowed in the strong room of the ship during the trip across the Pacific. Mr. Chang traveled over a large part of China to secure architectural details of the many varieties of pagodas. He succeeded in evolving from his observations and studies a distinctive pattern, which is not only pleasing in its general proportions, but is marvelously accurate from the standpoint of a student of Chinese architecture. The general contour of the pagoda resembles Lung-hwa Pagoda near Shanghai, but the proportions and shapes of the component parts are much finer. The result of extensive study of numerous types, it is occasional in shape, and complete with doors, windows, balconies and bells, the latter being suspended from the eaves of the curved sloping roofs, reminiscent of those of the palace buildings in the Forbidden City.

Mr. Chang estimates that one and a half million hours of patient and, at times, exceedingly delicate labor were devoted to the completion of the pagoda. Because the craftsmen were working upon material of extraordinary hardness in efforts to produce an object of exquisitely delicate design, there were times when the slightest slip of the hand or tool might have ruined the whole object of their combined labors and shattered the hopes of its designer. The work continued for more than ten years.

The particular piece of carved jade from which the Pagoda was carved was of enormous size, weighing about 10,000 pounds. It was obtained eighteen years ago from a quarry in Burma.

Liberals Ask Bennett to State Title Intentions

READS HANSARD
The Prime Minister replied he would read in Hansard what Mr. King had said and would give an answer later. That was Mr. Bennett's response also to the opposition leader's question whether the House would be given an opportunity to discuss the matter of titles before these were conferred.

COMMENTS DIFFER
Montreal, May 22.—Miss Agnes MacPhail, M.P. for St. Lawrence, Ont., said to a committee on the statement recently made by Premier Bennett to the effect that the 1919 resolution against titles in Canada did not bind the present Parliament, said:

"I consider titles not in keeping with the spirit of the times. They are artificial distinctions."
Hon. Lord Shaughnessy, whose father, president of the C.P.R., was the first Baron Shaughnessy, said: "I have always been in favor of titles. Titles are the only way in which His Majesty can honor his Canadian subjects who have rendered conspicuous service."

T. B. Macaulay, prominent businessman, said: "I am distinctly opposed to hereditary titles. However, I favor the restoration of titles in Canada, feeling as I do that any country which lacks a way of saying 'thank you' to those who render distinct public service is badly off."

Chief Justice R. A. E. Greenfield: "I don't think there is any doubt about titles being good and proper. Of course, the whole system would have to be properly administered and abuses prevented."

only under article 16 of the covenant of the League of Nations.
DISARMAMENT
3. The mention of disarmament only as a desirable necessity without specific recommendations.
4. An agreement to abide by article 10 of the covenant, protecting territorial integrity and independence of League members against external aggression.

The preamble states the pact is based on the League covenant, the Briand-Kellogg pact and the Four-Power "no force" agreement of last December, which guaranteed German arms equality after a serious misunderstanding in the Disarmament Conference. The League covenant is not specifically mentioned in the form of the original pact.

The agreement was hailed as a happy augury for the Disarmament Conference. It was the first time since the League of Nations was formed that the world's great powers had agreed to a formal pact of disarmament.

FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT
The honor of making the formal announcement of the agreement will fall to the Disarmament Conference. The announcement will probably take the form of a solemn statement to the world either immediately after the meeting of the League of Nations or at a later date.

BREVIETY DESIRED
A British memorandum on the pact, written after Premier MacDonald had returned to London, requested the inclusion in the pact of the MacDonald disarmament plan. To this Signor Mussolini agreed, but this meant writing disarmament into the pact in great detail. Moreover, the big powers are now agreeing to the MacDonald plan at Geneva and this makes it unnecessary to include it in the Mussolini pact.

ROME DEBATE
Rome, May 22.—The four big powers of Western Europe are "regarding peace or war in Europe and in the world," Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs Fulvio Suvich told the Chamber of Deputies to-day in a discussion of the pact.

Signor Suvich spoke in the presence of the President of the Chamber. He said four-power responsibility for peace did not mean less respect for the will of other states and "there is no less desire and necessity for collaboration of all offensive arms."

The Mussolini pact, he declared, would result in the disappearance of small groups "antagonistic one to the other which organize political manoeuvres and press propaganda which produce repercussions in all countries and poison world public opinion."

FRANCE'S POSITION
Paris, May 22.—The French government, viewing as a firm step toward European pacification the four-power pact, has agreed to accept the MacDonald disarmament plan in principle.

Joseph Paul-Boncour, Foreign Minister, has gone to Geneva with instructions to notify the Disarmament Conference of the acceptance, but with these six points reported set out as essential: international armaments supervision; speedy establishment of a permanent disarmament agency; immediate cessation of air, land and sea armament construction; willingness to abolish offensive arms, and ultimate destruction of internationalization of all offensive arms.

INFLUENCE SPREADS
Washington, May 22.—Informal European approval of the Mussolini peace plan was hailed by United States officials as an indication of increasing international interest in the League of Nations and the Geneva arms reduction conference.

With Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy entering into a pact for the preservation of peace through the coming decade. There was a disposition here to believe it might be easier to make a pact for disarmament than to enforce it.

Coming to Victoria four years ago to accept his first charge after ordination, Mr. Gray has worked tirelessly in the interests of the young people of the United Church. His organization of various groups will stand as a monument to his success in that field.

Before being ordained he spent considerable time in the mission fields of the prairies during his student days. His new position will be the first in which he has enjoyed complete seniority.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE
During the Great War, Mr. Gray served with distinction in France, winning the Military Cross. He went overseas as a private and won his commission on the field.

Mr. Gray is popular in many fields apart from the ministry. He is a well-known member of the Kiwanis Club, has worked on several objectives with the Young Men's Christian Association and has devoted much of his time to other organizations promoting community welfare. His loss to the city will be felt widely.

GROUPS ADVOCATE WAR
There are certain groups in every land who can't help but want war. In this light, he did not believe it fair to outwardly condemn these bodies since war was their business.

According to a statement from the League of Nations, armaments manufacturers and other private individuals were largely responsible for this, inasmuch as they were much more ready to believe rumors of war. These persons, however, the speaker noted, were only following natural human emotions.

BY TRIVIAL TROUBLES
War, he continued, had often been caused by trivial troubles. It was the world courts, Dr. Anderson stated, that had been established to settle these disputes by law, and he pointed out the fallacy of the earlier methods of justice, when the man who was the quicker on the draw was the victor.

Speaking of law courts, Dr. Anderson admitted that greater justice was meted out more in the British courts than in those of the United States.

His lectures on "Random Shots at Flying Follies" enhanced his fame. Born at Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, he came to Canada with his parents at the age of fourteen. Educated for a legal career, Mr. Thompson abandoned it for journalistic work, and later held editorial positions on "The Evening Telegram," "The Mail and Empire" and "The Globe," all of Toronto, and "The Boston Traveler."

The economies effected have reduced production costs in primary and secondary industries and the increased industrial efficiency resulting has made possible a downward revision of the tariffs without endangering the Australian industrial fabric.

The committee proposes that "The people legally acquire the means of production and distribution and the natural resources of the continent. . . . That a technologically sound social mechanism be established under which every adult capable for service shall contribute his service."

REDISTRIBUTION AND THE FIGHT AT OTTAWA

There is going to be a hot fight in the House of Commons over the redistribution proposals of the government. The proposals ultimately will go into effect because the government has enough of a majority to ram them through, no matter how good or bad they may be, and beyond this it has the advantage of the closure, that characteristically Tory device for suppressing free debate which was incorporated into the procedure of the Canadian Parliament by a Conservative government nearly twenty years ago.

The Liberal opposition at Ottawa claims that the government's proposals are designed in certain instances to reduce the prospects of Liberal representation in the next House of Commons. This is known in Canada's political record as the gerrymander, by which electoral districts are readjusted and juggled in such a way as to give direct advantage to the party in office. For example, where two Liberal districts are alongside of one another, they are united in whole or in part to eliminate one of the members. Also sections in which Liberal votes predominate are added to sections of other districts in which Conservative votes are even more numerous. This is natural enough in the game of party politics, and when Liberals are in office they make similar readjustments.

At present, however, readjustments of this kind are of dubious advantage to the party in office, for the very obvious reason that the electorate is less divided on party lines throughout Canada than it has been at any other period in half a century. There is a very general hostility to the government in every province, in the same sense that there was general hostility to the Hoover government in the United States. The old-time party designations are meaningless. There are many constituencies fondly recorded in the Conservative column according to ancient record which are against the government, not because they are Liberal but because they do not like the government, and are ready to vote for any opposition candidate just to get rid of it. Hence, the Liberal opposition does not need to worry very much over what the government may try to do through redistribution, for we doubt if Mr. Bennett to-day can point to more than a very few constituencies of whose political complexion he can be certain. His administration is electorally dead.

After every decennial census Parliament redistributes representation on the basis of population. The unit of membership is determined by Quebec, whose membership of sixty-five in the House of Commons is constant, and that unit is the result of the division of the population of Quebec by that number. This works out at one member to some 44,000 people. Dividing the population of each province by 44,000 gives the number of members it will have until the next census. On that basis the Maritime Provinces, whose population increases have been small, will lose three members, Nova Scotia dropping two and New Brunswick one. Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba and Saskatchewan will have no change in representation, but Alberta will rise from sixteen to seventeen and British Columbia from fourteen to sixteen. As three are lost in the Atlantic provinces and the same number are gained in the two most western provinces, the total membership in the House of Commons of 245 will remain as it is at present.

But whether there is a change in the number of members in the House in any province or not, there invariably is an alteration of the constituencies for purposes, mainly, of party advantage. To effect this a committee is appointed from all parties in Parliament, with the government members in the majority. This committee evidently has failed to agree upon the carving process and the fight is being taken into the House. Quebec Liberals object to some of the proposed readjustments in the Montreal district, while the government's proposals in western Ontario have aroused strong opposition. A proposed change in Saskatchewan has failed to secure agreement, while some of the suggested readjustments in British Columbia appear to be preposterous. For example, lopping off a chunk of Comox-Alberni and adding it to North Vancouver on the mainland seems fantastic. Victoria is to be enlarged at the expense of Nanaimo by the addition of Oak Bay, Esquimalt and a part of Saanich.

In normal times the federal government might expect to increase the number of Conservative voters in this city by such a readjustment, but these are not normal times. We doubt if the Ottawa government is any more popular in Esquimalt and Oak Bay than it is in sections of Vancouver Island where the Liberals in other times were supposed to be strong. If Ottawa has any idea that the electors of those sections are just so many sheep, it may suffer a severe shock. In general, however, the change is logical enough, since there is no earthly reason why Oak Bay and Esquimalt should be in the same district as Nanaimo—more than seventy miles away—with which they have no direct association.

ACID TEST OF THE PREMIER'S UNIONISM

The Saanich Conservative Association has called a convention for to-morrow evening for the nomination of a candidate for the provincial election, Premier Tolmie, of course, being the candidate in view. But how can the Saanich Conservative Association nominate a candidate who has declared that he is leading a union, not a Conservative, government? And how can the Premier in his new party capacity properly accept a nomination at the hands of the Conservative Association of Saanich? Obviously, one or the other must undergo a change of identity, and it is hard to see how the Premier can do so in view of his recent announcement when a non-party man was taken into his ministry as Minister of Labor?

There is nothing, of course, to prevent the Saanich Conservative Association endorsing the Premier's candidature, but it certainly in its present form can not nominate him nor can it accept such definite party nomination without compromising itself as the leader of a unionist party. In these exceptional circumstances, the only convention which can properly nominate the Premier as an official candidate must be a gathering open to all elements in the district which would, therefore, be unionist in name as well as in composition. Even a lightning change in name by the Saanich Conservative Association before the convention would not meet the new situation. For these reasons the eyes of the province will be on the convention to-morrow night.

"SERVICE ABOVE SELF—HE PROFITS MOST WHO SERVES BEST"

When Paul P. Harris, a young Chicago lawyer, conceived the idea of Rotary twenty-eight years ago he little thought that by 1933 there would be clubs in seventy countries or territorial districts and a membership of nearly 150,000. Yet this is the record and the Victoria branch is host this week to the nineteenth annual conference of Pacific Northwest Rotary. All our citizens cordially welcome our visitors and trust their deliberations will be both pleasant and profitable.

Rotary is devoted to the advancement of the ideal of service and its application to personal, business, community, and international life. As such it has become a great force and a great educator. It has helped to break down many narrow prejudices which had developed through lack of understanding between peoples. It and other similar organizations have been responsible for the creation of greater friendliness between the people of Canada and the people of the United States. Rotary is serving the same useful purpose in other parts of the world.

Cynics have been wont to say that there are too many service clubs, that they are merely mutual admiration societies. No more hollow charge could be made. Solid achievement in the humanitarian field alone is sufficient to warrant the existence of all of them. There can not be too many organizations which include among their practical aims the betterment of society and the development of goodwill between nations. As it was a pioneering body, Rotary has led the way, and it could require no more fitting monument to its founder than the universality of its operations.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES AND THEIR AFFAIRS

The Financial Post of Toronto has estimated that life insurance companies operating in Canada paid to policy-holders and their heirs $185,000,000 in 1932. This is about seventeen per cent larger than the corresponding figure a year ago and is about twice as large as the total amount distributed by the companies operating in Canada five years ago.

This large increase in the amounts paid by life insurance companies to policy-holders and their heirs, in spite of a sharp drop in policy dividend payments, has been caused by the heavy demand for cash-surrender values. Many policy-holders in Canada, being adversely affected by the general depression and having suffered substantial losses from their investments, converted their life insurance policies into cash, a development which took place not only in Canada but also in the United States. The following table shows the actual cash-surrender values paid by a majority of Canadian companies in 1927, 1931 and 1932:

Companies	1927	1931	1932
Sup.	$28,439,568	$20,727,218	$9,245,048
Canada	9,539,212	5,949,624	2,783,329
Manufacturers	8,807,362	5,284,530	2,145,445
Mutual of Canada	5,253,053	3,737,483	1,685,795
Confederation	3,756,308	2,445,795	1,376,700
Imperial	4,034,927	2,476,995	971,491
North American	2,273,044	1,799,950	970,716
Crown	1,209,323	691,460	352,850
Essex	782,445	607,807	319,444
National	710,781	495,781	214,427
Northern	654,968	496,809	201,850
Continental	480,916	390,429	160,297
Sovereign	451,295	319,178	98,445
Maritime	28,552	10,823	694
Western Empire	109,808	44,282	7,884

These fifteen companies comprised eighty-five per cent of the Canadian total in 1931. Thus, while the above fifteen companies paid out in cash surrender values in 1927 only about $20,500,000, this amount increased to approximately $45,500,000 in 1931 and to $66,500,000 in 1932. In spite of the increased demand for cash on the life insurance companies, the latter continued to meet promptly all the demands made upon them. This has been made possible primarily by the fact that payments to policy-holders and their beneficiaries comprise usually less than fifty-five per cent of the premium income.

It has been estimated, however, that during 1932 the payments made by the life insurance companies amounted to 67.4 per cent of the premium income. It is generally expected that with a return of more normal business conditions the number of policy-holders will increase and that this, in turn, will tend to increase the amount of premium income and decrease payments of cash surrender values.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

LIBERALS AND LIQUOR
The Border Cities Star

Despite propaganda stories appearing in Toronto papers that are unsympathetic to the Liberal party, The Border Cities Star learns from high and authoritative sources that Ontario Liberals have not dropped the proposal to adopt, as part of their platform, something akin to the liquor control system used by the government of Quebec.

It is true, we are advised, that no decision was made at the meeting of the management committee in Toronto yesterday, but the action taken was one of postponement, not of rejection, of the liquor control plan.

Loose Ends

Concerning land, cattle and women and so forth—the introduction of communism on a large scale—a plan for staggering the government—and sure signs of economic recovery.

By H. B. W.

CATTLE AND WOMEN

THE TROUBLE over in Europe, says my friend Jim Butterfield, of The Province, is that the Allies didn't make a complete job of defeating Germany. "War," he writes in a fringed paragraph, "is a primitive and fundamental thing, and it should have primitive and fundamental results. To the conqueror should go the available and visible spoils of victory. To the conquered should go the land of the vanquished, his cattle and his women. Had the Allies marched into Germany and laid her lands waste, the German people would really know that they had lost the war." This notion is worth observing because it has a quite common. No less an authority than George Fudbury told me to-day that if he had been in command of the army, instead of wearing only sergeant's stripes, they would have marched to Berlin, and, in Mr. Fudbury's own words, "raised merry hell," which seems to be Mr. Butterfield's general idea, too. Mr. Deas, agreed with this sentiment, so we may consider it as being the unanimous opinion of the country's best minds.

There are several things which make this theory a little madder than most that come from the same source. At the first place, after the war the Allies had to put Germany on its feet, lend it vast sums for the purpose (which will never be repaid) in order that the German market might buy foreign goods. If the country had been completely destroyed it would have cost us just that much more to replace the damage we had done. In the next place the worse we treated Germany the more certain would have been Germany's determination to get even if it took a hundred years. It was, indeed, our absurd notion of peace, our attempt to make Germany pay for the war, to hold her solely responsible, against all the evidences of history, our flagrant breach of the treaty terms by which we were to disarm, that inevitably forced a new birth of nationalism and war lust among the young of Germany. Any people with a ounce of courage would have felt precisely the same way about it.

But even if you don't agree with that, there is another point of more personal interest. If a country is going to advocate war on the Butterfield-Pudbury-Bank plan, it is the conqueror should go the land of the vanquished, his cattle and his women, then that country must be prepared to war according to that plan and take the full consequences. It need expect no protection from an enlightened world opinion or of its own sentiments or Christianity. With that arrangement Canada has a special concern, for if the nations are to run amok as they please, this country would be the most attractive field for development that I can think of at the moment. It has plenty of land, plenty of cattle, plenty of women to offer the conqueror, and not enough people to defend it for a week against a first-class power. If our neighbors subscribed to the on-to-Berlin idea they would have been in long ago, taken all our land, cattle and women, and butchered us if we objected. No place is more interested than we are in maintaining some semblance of sanity in the world. We have no much land, so many cattle, so many women to lose.

ROTATOR

FOR A MOMENT I had hoped that when Hon. W. M. Denny, the new Minister of Labor, advocated the rotation of working hours in industry he was speaking only of his own views, more or less in the Pickwickian sense, that he was aflame with a fire of enthusiasm which had not yet burned his colleagues. Alas, it is discovered that Mr. Denny's celebrated statement as to the requirements of a constitutional government, when Mr. Denny spoke, the government spoke. Premier Tolmie now confirms the rotation theory in a speech at Sidney. The matter thus ceases to be one of humor, as the press so far has treated it, and becomes deadly earnest.

Before the Denny Plan becomes operative, it may be worth examining those philosophical aspects which possibly may escape a busy government. Well, then, if you compel a man to work half a day and earn half a wage in order that his neighbor may enjoy the other half (and both may half-starve together), you do so on the theory that every man is entitled to an equal share of wealth. You definitely commit yourself, if you are a government, to giving every man an equal economic position. You repudiate flatly the old theory that a man is entitled to special reward for special service. In fact, you adopt the basis of communism purely and simply.

Ah, yes, but mark this—while the government is prepared to thrust communism down the throat of the working people, I do not think it or any other group of well-paid men will admit it for themselves. I do not think it will agree that communism should affect anyone receiving more than $6,000 a year. Communism is all right for the poor who have almost nothing to share in common. It is a dangerous, blood-red, revolutionary theory when applied to those who have a lot. Mr. Denny ought to be careful about introducing communism among the poor. Such things are apt to prove contagious and spread upwards. Meanwhile it must delight the souls of such excellent and conservative gentlemen as Mr. Pooley and Mr. Howe both fine fellows) to hear a cabinet colleague cheerfully proposing a revolution.

REAL PLAN

BUT IF the government is determined on rotation, let us do the thing right and wholeheartedly. For example, let me rotate with Mr. Denny. I feel sure by his opening manifesto that he could write a column much more interesting than this and even more obscure. And what I would do with the department of labor would make Mr. Pooley and Mr. Howe themselves into the sea. And I am confident that the Premier would willingly share his job with Mr. Pattullo three days a week turn and turn about; or possibly Dr. Tolmie could be Premier in the morning and Mr. Pattullo in the afternoon, a perfect arrangement under which there would never be a dull moment. Anything foolish that the doctor did in the morning, Mr. Pattullo could correct in the afternoon. Next morning the doctor could save the country from Mr. Pattullo's mistakes of the previous day. The country would be safe from both and would have the benefit of their joint wisdom all for one salary. Instead of a cabinet of eleven we could have twenty-two without any additional expense and government of course would be just twice as efficient. That is my idea of a real union government. That is what they call "staggering" labor. British Columbia could endure it without damage all his could endure it without damage. It has been suggested by governments so often before that another little stagger wouldn't do it any harm. As for governments they have been staggered all the time.

STRAWS

IT IS CURIOUS to observe what straws the economists grasp after to prove their own theories of economics. For example one noted authority has lately translated that the depression is lifting, because the women of the United States are leaving their wash tubs and sending their clothes to the laundry, a sure sign of prosperity. Another observer has been out questioning the street sweepers of the land, and they assure him that prosperity has already dawned because the cigarette butts are getting longer and longer. It is well worth while to record and catalogue these larger tendencies of civilization so we may get a true picture of conditions.

We may now add to the impressive list of improvements the fact that leading Canadians are now willing to unobtainable at the expense of time and money; that more and more parties are entering the provincial election; that reorganizations of the provincial government are occurring much more rapidly than ever in the past; that thousands of people are paying the new real tax who didn't pay last year; that the P.G.E. hasn't been on the verge of selling for some time as it always is during economic stress; and if any further evidence of prosperity were required, I observe that more and more crumbs and morsels are seen to adhere to the face of the little boy who finds four every day, a positive sign of abundance. These facts are as good as most of the experts' views that I have been lately. Most likely it is these statistics that have persuaded the federal government to cut down unemployment relief.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By ALINE MICHAELIS

WALKING IN THE SUNLIGHT

There are souls that walk in the sunlight
Under the shadow of smiling, tranquil skies,
In the gladness of peaceful ways,
Life has flowers for them to gather:
The cool shade of their own hearts,
The king of a child in their heart's ease,
The roses of love's delight.

There's the beauty of wide, far spaces,
The cool shade of their own hearts,
The king of a child in their heart's ease,
The roses of love's delight.

Oh, they always walk in the sunlight,
For their hearts are so brimmed with
The glow of love's delight,
They take sunshine wherever they go!

OIL-ELECTRIC LOCOMOTIVE

To the Editor:—In the handbook of the conditions and recent progress in the Dominion of Canada, on page 127, there is a photo of the oil electric locomotive "9000" which was run for some time on what used to be part of the Grand Trunk between Toronto and Montreal. It hauled a heavy train as the steam locomotive. Sir Henry Thornton reported that the oil electric locomotive could be operated at much less cost than its steam rival. There was also a trial run of a passenger coach driven by an electric engine about four years ago on the Canadian National Railways between Montreal and Vancouver with very few stops. Can anybody tell why the oil electric locomotive was not adopted to haul some of Canada's trains?

FREE MONEY

To the Editor:—Earlier in the year you kindly published letters from different contributors suggesting the adoption by the Dominion Government of Silvio Gesell's system of "Free Money," or "Stamped Scrip," as designated by Dr. Irving Fisher and other economists.

OWNERS ARE ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT FORD V-8 ECONOMY!

While the new Ford V-8 is larger and roomier, with a more powerful and smoother engine, it is still the most economical car you can own.

how Gesell's theories can be put into practical use in Canada.

When the Canadian Minister of Finance states that out of the estimated expenditure of $445,000,000 for the fiscal year 1933-34 there are uncontrollable items (for interest, old age pensions, unemployment relief, etc.) totaling $313,000,000, it is evident that immediate reform must be made in our monetary system or we must turn to socialism, communism, or fascism to escape national bankruptcy.

"Canada Reconstructed," which shows one way of escape, can be obtained from local book stores or from the Victoria Public Library, and should be studied by every open minded citizen.

METER CHARGES

To the Editor:—Is it not time the B.C.E. Company stopped charging for gas meters that must have been paid for over and over again? I for one have used gas for cooking for some years. As everyone knows twenty-five cents per month is charged for every single meter. At the end of four years my meter was taken out and replaced by a worse and older one. It seemed so badly I had to ask for a man to be sent to see to it. It is honest that meters should be charged for year in and year out? I think the B.C.E. Company should, undoubtedly, attend the O.G. Group meetings.

FLOWER FESTIVAL

To the Editor:—Through the columns of your newspaper we would like to express our appreciation of the well-organized and splendid musical and dramatic festivals recently held in this sunshiny city.

There is no doubt that the same co-operation and support would be given for a spring festival and carnival in the open air. As visitors from Ontario, we have been impressed with the beautiful display of spring flowers everywhere in Victoria, and that it would be a big drawing card if arrangements could be made to have a massed showing of dahlias, tulips, hyacinths and other early flowers and shrubs.

There is need for a Victoria municipal public garden located near the centre of the city, where a beautiful floral display could be produced nearly all the year round in this climate.

Twenty-five Years Ago To-day

THE VICTORIA DAILY TIMES,
May 22, 1908
(From The Times File)

Weather Forecast—Victoria and vicinity: Easterly to southerly wind, mostly fair, not much change in temperature.

Last night the new light at Pachena Point was placed in operation for the first time, and, according to a wireless message from Pachena this morning, worked most satisfactorily.

The Union steamship Camouan, which reached port yesterday afternoon from the north and sailed again last night for British Columbia ports, made a fast run from Prince Rupert to Vancouver, leaving the G.T.F. terminal at 9 o'clock on Sunday night she reached Vancouver exactly forty-five hours later.

New York, May 22.—Transatlantic records for a voyage, average speed, for the shortest trip over the long course, were broken by the Cunard liner Lusitania which arrived here to-day. The big ship anchored off the Sandy Hook lightship in a very heavy fog at 2:35 this morning, just 4 days, 26 hours and 22 minutes after she passed Deutsches Bank. This beats the best previous time for the long course made by her sister ship, the Mauretania by 3 hours and 37 minutes.

The Quamichan Indians arrived last evening and will be all ready for the May 24 celebration. The LaComer Indians are also on the way and will be here to-night if all goes well. Practically the whole tribe comes to the city on these occasions, and they have a lively polioch over at the reserve.

AN INTER-CLUB competition this evening and an inter-lodge contest to-morrow will feature bowling fixtures at the Victoria Club at the early part of this week.

This evening the Victoria Club is scheduled to meet a team from the Greater Victoria Lawn Bowling Club executive. The host club will be represented by the following:

E. H. Forrest, S. Baxendale, A. McKeelie and H. M. Wright; skip, C. McDonald and E. G. Sherwood, skip.

A. T. Harris, G. Raby, T. Renfrew and R. McCosh, skip.

E. R. Corbett, A. Finlay, W. Arnot and R. A. C. Dewar, skip.

To-morrow evening the Masons will meet the Odd Fellows in a meet which promises to be exceptionally interesting. Squads for the evening follow:

Masons—J. A. McDonald, M. Barron, J. McMartin and R. A. C. Dewar, skip.

Odd Fellows—D. Dewar, F. W. Davey, W. H. Cullin and T. Renfrew, skip.

Retirement age.

EVERY man expects to retire some day, say at age 60 or 65, and from then on take life easy—as he should. Just how this is going to happen, however, is often vague and indefinite in his mind.

The Imperial Retirement Income Policy offers a definite plan—

Under this Plan a capital sum is built up from the surplus of your income—the amounts you can spare from month to month. Then, with the help of our investment facilities, we are able to guarantee you a monthly cheque for say $100 or more to keep you in comfort after you retire.

More than that, however, should you die prematurely, this capital sum would be immediately available either in cash or as an income for your dependents. Also, the Plan can include a total disability provision for yourself that will be very comforting.

The Imperial Retirement Income Policy offers the ideal investment for the prudent man. The income cheque comes regularly every month—and there are no reinvestment worries. Write for particulars today—this type of policy is only available while you are in good health.

Three Other Candidates May Make Bid in Nanaimo-
Alberni Riding

Nanaimo, May 22.—Nanaimo voters were gratified when it was learned George S. Pearson, M.P.P., had secured the Nanaimo-Alberni nomination. Mr. Pearson's work in the recent session and his willingness to take up the problems of the workers has gained him many supporters in Nanaimo and district. It is rumored that there will be four candidates in the field, Liberal, Conservative, Union and Soldier-Socialist. Dr. Hall will, in all probability, run as a Unionist. The other candidates are not definitely known as yet.

Questioned if it was his intention to run as a Soldier-Socialist candidate, T. A. Barnard, former aspirant for parliamentary honors, said "He had nothing for publication."

Christian Service To Mankind Urged

Lofty Ideals of Rotarianism Are World Need, Dean Quainton Tells Delegates

"Get the mind of the Christian servant, and having obtained it, keep it and use it for the good of all mankind," was the message which Very Rev. C. S. Quainton, Dean of Columbia, gave to Rotarians attending the nineteenth annual conference of District No. 1 in the Empress Hotel yesterday evening, at the official opening of the convention.

The Dean spoke on "The Philosophy of Service."

"The word 'service' is like a coin that has long been in circulation and is worn," the Dean said in opening, "and it should be our endeavor to try and freshen the old word-up-and-work for the mind of the Christian servant and keep it."

Service was not narrowed down to a service club, the Dean pointed out. Service was something bigger than just being a good mixer, and the spirit of service meant something greater than just having pious wishes.

FALSE SERVICE

Amusingly Dean Quainton illustrated how many men and women felt that they were rendering service by adopting a good fellowship attitude and not devoting their thoughts to valuable service. "Service was more than a 'fussy activity' and a 'slap-you-on-the-back attitude,'" he commented.

"Rotarianism has lofty ideals and ideals that the world needs," he asserted, "but these ideals often dwindle and become a mere tag. When these ideals reached this latter stage, they were useless, he warned."

The Dean spoke of the frequent occurrences where a great ideal created a great institution and then the institution which it created often tended to destroy the ideal.

Enlarging on this, he exemplified the Old Country school boards, although he added, these instances were to be found in church and all other organizations. These boards, he continued, often sat on them with individual ideals with plans only for selfish gain, thus destroying the body's ideal.

"The Christian Church was brought into being to save the world and transform human life, and when the church begins to think that it should be bolstered up then its purpose is lost," he stated.

"DIE TO LIVE"

He warned against this inherent danger of all communal effort, "You must die to live," he said, "and no matter what happens to Rotary, the service must go on." It was necessary to think about high ideals if they were to be retained, he explained.

The Dean suggested that it might be a beneficial thing for club members to sit quietly, once a month, or more often, and ponder over higher ideals to which they might aspire. The trouble of to-day, continued the speaker, was that scientific development had out-paced moral and spiritual development, and "our insides cannot keep pace with our outsides."

In this respect he quoted the saying of Rabindranath Tagore, "Never mind the waves of the sea, but look to your own boat." "Our outward activities," the Dean asserted, "may act as a smoke screen which hide our inner state, and the time finally comes when we need a spring cleaning."

"Death to self is hard to us all, but let us die and come to the beginning of God and closer to the hearts of men," the Dean concluded.

A vote of thanks was offered by District Governor William McGilchrist Jr.

Looks For Bigger Demand For Wheat

Ottawa, May 22.—To Canada must fall a large percentage of the world wheat trade for the balance of the crop year or until the end of July as a result of shortage of wheat for export in other wheat growing countries of the world, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics says in a report issued yesterday.

Russia and the Danube countries have no wheat available for export. The United States cannot compete at present price levels and the bulk of the 1932 crops in the Argentine and Australia has now been shipped. Consequently the only wheat immediately available for the world market is the balance of the southern hemisphere crops and the reserves held in Canada.

GREETINGS EXCHANGED

Mayor David Leeming Welcomes Delegates to Rotary Conference

World Needs Spirit of Rotary at Present Time, His Worship Says

Rotarians from District No. 1, of British Columbia and northwest states, attending the nineteenth annual district gathering here this week, were officially welcomed by civic and local club representatives at the Empress Hotel yesterday evening.

George McGregor, president of the local club, presided at the opening, later handing the gavel over to District Governor William McGilchrist Jr. Mr. McGregor extended a welcome on behalf of the host club. He spoke of the significance of having United States visitors in the city on Empire Sunday. He felt the district officials were most gratified at the large attendance.

"I am sure there was never a time in the history of the world when the world needed Rotary as it does today," he stated. He referred to Ramsay MacDonald's recent statement to the effect that unity among English-speaking peoples was necessary at this time. This assertion had been strongly supported by President Roosevelt, he continued, adding that these two statements should be fully supported by the convention in this connection.

INTRODUCES MAYOR

District Governor William McGilchrist introduced Mayor Leeming, whom he declared to be the mayor of "one of the most beautiful spots in the world."

Victoria was honored by being host to the Rotary conference, His Worship stated.

"The greetings of Victoria to you are real and genuine," the mayor said. He spoke of the pleasure which had been afforded him in welcoming the world representatives of Rotary last year.

It had inspired him to notice the spirit of internationalism at their gatherings during a period when feelings of nationalism were so prevalent. He viewed the work of Rotary as the carrying out of the second commandment, and it promoted a spirit of loving among citizens and their neighbors in foreign countries.

HEAVEN ON EARTH

Men engaged in such a work, he continued, were able to live in heaven on earth. Rotary had accepted the challenge of "Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself," he said, extending every wish for a most successful convention.

Stuart Mannell, president of the Seattle club, responded for the visitors. "This is not the first time that we have enjoyed the hospitality of Victoria," Mr. Mannell assured Mayor Leeming. The Rotarians, he said, were only too happy to meet in this city, realizing that conventions had been held here in 1915, 1920 and 1928.

The Rotarians of the district were gathered here to hear reports of service work being carried on throughout the district. He agreed that there was a great need for the spirit of Rotary today. No new doctrines were being presented, he said, only those of friendship and fellowship.

ORGANIZATION MAINTAINED

"Rotary is one of the few organizations of its kind which up to to-day has withstood the ravages of four years of difficult times," Mr. Mannell said, adding that during these years there had only been a loss of 7½ per cent in membership.

He thanked the mayor and citizens of Victoria for their genial hospitality and cordiality in welcoming the visitors.

APPRECIATE HOSPITALITY

The district governor spoke of the hospitality prevalent in Victoria, and requested a vote of appreciation from the floor for Rotarian Herbert J. Pendray and Mrs. Pendray for entertaining in such a delightful manner at their home, as they did yesterday afternoon.

Music was rendered during the evening by the Victoria Rotary Club orchestra, under James M. Miller, and a double quartette from the Arion Club, led by Rotarian Frank J. Sehl. The invocation was given by Rotarian Rev. Lester Bond of Hood River, Ore., who also pronounced the benediction.

Much Wool Is Bought At British Auction

London, May 22.—A total of 8,435 bales of wool were offered at auction of which 7,413 were sold. There were 4,988 bales of South American included in the offerings. The fair selection offered met with good general buying and prices were in the sellers' favor. Some withdrawals were evident among the South Americans on firm limits.

FUR PRICES IN SEATTLE RISE

Canadian Press

Seattle, May 22.—Prices during the auction sale of the Seattle fur exchange last week were from 10 to 15 per cent higher than the range of the previous four to six weeks.

Fresh Alaskan beaver skins were particularly strong, being 15 to 20 per cent above recent prices.

Some of the best silver fox brought $75 each.

LONDON MARKET

London, May 22.—Influenced by moderate international outlook, trading in stock exchange was generally cheerful. German bonds advanced steadily. Steel shares were also supported. Argentine rose 1½ points, but taking weakness of oil shares and transatlantic issues. The closing was steady.

STUDENT SLAIN BY CAR BANDIT

Associated Press.
Los Angeles, May 22.—Lyle William Eder, nineteen-year-old University of Southern California pre-medical student, was shot and killed early to-day in front of the Los Angeles Athletic Club in downtown Los Angeles, when, police said, he resisted an attempt to rob him.

Eder was riding in an automobile with Miss Betty Forbes, seventeen, daughter of Bruce Forbes, local banker, when a man jumped on the running board of the machine and ordered Eder to "move over."

The youth released the wheel and crashed into the curb, both Eder and the man fell from the machine and struggled on the sidewalk. Two shots were fired. Eder fell with a bullet through his heart and the alleged robber, who gave his name as Russell Courtney, slumped to the street with a wound near his heart.

"I am just a sap," said Courtney as he was questioned by police at the receiving hospital. Surgeons said he would die.

ACROPLANE INSTALLED TO-DAY

Victoria will be introduced late to-day to the "acroplane," sensational machine which performs like an airplane. The machine, imported from Vancouver over the week-end, is set up on Fort Street between Vancouver and Quadra Streets.

During the May 23 and 24 holidays, the machine should be one of the entertainment features.

The device is a small model plane, mounted on a four-wheeled stand and is eighteen feet from the ground. It is occupied by one passenger who operates it as a pilot does a plane. The machine is fitted in a large steel frame revolving on three axes, allowing the occupant to perform difficult manoeuvres with perfect safety.

- SMOOTHNESS—The New Ford V-8 is the only low-priced car that gives you the smoothness of a V-type, eight-cylinder engine—that satisfying feel of a big car.
- ALUMINUM CYLINDER HEAD—Another outstanding Ford feature. An example of the high quality built into the car. An important factor in its speed, smoothness and economy.

- BEAUTY—The New Ford V-8 is one of the best-looking cars on the road today—regardless of price. It is the style leader for 1933.

OTHER EXCLUSIVE FEATURES—Here are other features exclusive to Ford in the low-price field: (1) Three-quarter floating rear axle, with straddle-mounted driving pinion. Ordinarily this is used only in cars selling for $2000 and over. (2) Torque-tube and radius-rod drive. Another feature found only in cars selling over $1500. (3) Continuous channel X-member frame, with transverse spring suspension. An important factor in security and riding comfort. (4) Safety Glass. Only Ford gives you this added protection without extra cost in the windshield and all windows of de luxe closed bodies. (5) One-piece welded steel-spoke wheels. Unusually strong and safe. (6) Automatic double-acting shock absorbers. The type usually used only for high-priced cars. (7) Largest brake area per pound of weight. You drive with greater safety when you drive the New Ford V-8.

See the New Ford V-8 at the showrooms of the nearest dealer and arrange for a demonstration. Check up on price—on what you get for what you pay. Also ride in the New Ford Four—another great value at a still lower price. Its improved 50-horsepower motor is completely cushioned in rubber, for quiet and smoothness.

Empire Building Defined Before Business Women

Miss Minna Gildea Gives Brilliant Address at Club's Annual Banquet.

Visits to "Benvenuto" and "Windyhaugh"; Luncheon at Gordon Head Yesterday

The old idea of empire-building is gradually giving way to the newer one of world-building; individualism is good only in so far as it is applied as a factor in community life, averred Miss Minna Gildea, Principal of Strathcona Lodge School for Girls, in an inspiring address at the annual banquet of Victoria Business and Professional Women's Club held on Saturday evening at the Empress Hotel.

Miss Margaret Clay presided and over one hundred guests attended. Taking as her subject "Reflections on Empire-Building," Miss Gildea recalled her experiences on various official committees in England during the war to illustrate the way in which the "unpaid officialdom" of Great Britain subjugated their individualities, their religious and political beliefs, in the common cause of the public weal.

Her long association with school work had shown her another aspect of empire-building. In the teaching of the youth of the country to become good citizens; to foster individualism only in that it might be applied to the good of the community. The older generation should not curb the young in their reaching out to wider horizons, but should remain in the background, acting as an anchor or a brake, but helping to maintain that continuity of ideal and tradition which acts as a stepping stone to the greater goal of world-building, maintained Miss Gildea.

Major Teeming in his address of welcome spoke of the value of women organizations, and deplored the tendency on the part of certain sections of the community to resent the entry of women into business and professional life. The co-operation of women would be an invaluable factor in the solution of some of the problems facing the world to-day, he asserted.

The toast to "Our Guests" was proposed by Mrs. H. P. Hodges and responded to by representatives of Business and Professional Women's Club. Mrs. Alfred Carmichael replied on behalf of the Women's Canadian Club and Major C. H. Holmes for the Service Club Council.

LADIES' WEARWOMEN ASK THAT MONEY BE
SYMBOL AND NOT COMMODITYSoroptimists Also Urge That National Credit Be Not Used For ArmsRegional Conference Closes
With Successful Birthday
Dinner at Empress

"The Canadian Region of Soroptimist Clubs in convention this day endorses the following as a basis of international understanding, namely, that money shall cease to be a commodity, it shall be restored to its rightful place as a symbol in order that barter and exchange may go on smoothly and for the benefit of the people; secondly, that the credit of nations shall not be used either individually, or in conjunction with that of any other nation, to finance war anywhere or at any time; and thirdly, that governments shall not use the credit of nations to supply arms and munitions to belligerents."

The above resolution was passed at the Soroptimist conference held here Saturday and will be forwarded to Premier Bennett and to the president of the National Council of Women for their attention.

Mrs. R. J. Sprout of Vancouver, regional director, briefly spoke, touching upon woman in her business capacity through the ages and the possibilities for wielding a force in the present crisis. She also reviewed the development of the Canadian branch, with its three clubs.

The business sessions were concluded in the evening with a dinner held in the private dining-room at the Empress Hotel, Miss Alma Russell presiding. The tables were attractive with blue iris, alyssum and forget-me-nots, and an ice cream cake, marked with one candle, symbolized the first birthday of the local club. About forty were present.

MRS. CREHAN SPEAKS
Mrs. Mercy Ellen Crehan of Vancouver, president of the American Federation of Women, gave an interesting account of her official visit to the clubs in California, and a resume of the discussions which centered round the theme of international good will conveyed to the members a definite idea of the ideals of the club women.

The desirability of arriving at a basis for international understanding had been well received, she reported, and discussions had centered round how the causes of war might be removed, with money, or its equivalent as the paramount factor. It was the consensus of opinion, Mrs. Crehan noted, that money should cease to be a commodity, and should return to its rightful place as a symbol.

LINK WITH ROTARY
Wm. McGilchrist Jr., district governor of Rotary, conveyed the greetings of Rotary and recalled that the first Soroptimist Club had been formed by a Rotarian.

Vocal solos by Miss Patricia Robinson, and Hugh Renwick, were much enjoyed. Mrs. John Gough playing the accompaniment. Mrs. G. Downes, Mrs. M. Ridley and Mrs. Wharton appeared in a clever skit, "The First Meeting," which caused a great deal of amusement, and was enthusiastically applauded by the members.

Tea was served in the ballroom foyer in the afternoon, where Madame Eva Baird and Miss Alma Russell presided at a table which was charmingly arranged with pink tulips and mauve lilies.

The invitation of the Vancouver Club, tendered through its president, Miss Esther Kinney, to hold the next regional conference in Vancouver, was accepted.

GUESTS AT "DRUMADOON"
Yesterday morning the out-of-town guests and members of the local club were taken for a drive, gathering later at "Drumadoon," Cadboro Bay, the charming home of Mrs. Fred Robertson, where a buffet luncheon was served.

The reception rooms were beautifully massed with flowers of every variety, and on the luncheon table the place of honor was given to the three-tiered birthday cake, iced in blue and yellow club colors and topped by one blue candle.

DISAPPOINTED
Mrs. F. J. admits, "My baby can go just about three days on a formula, and then she begins to vomit and leave part of the formula and act as if it were distasteful to her. She has had formulas with various kinds of sugar, boiled and unboiled and evaporated milk. She did quite well on this last milk, but I don't think her gain was adequate. I'd like to try a sour milk formula. I am going to visit my parents this summer and they have quantities of delicious buttermilk. Would it be all right to give this to the baby instead of sweet milk? She is nine months old and weighs twenty-three pounds."

The baby's large weight compels me to think that some of her past troubles may have been due to overfeeding, for any milk given in excessive quantities is apt to cause indigestion and a loss of appetite. Reduction to average levels will dissipate these reactions. Lactic acid milk is a good choice as it is easy to digest.

SOUL MILK FEEDINGS
Churned buttermilk, if the milk has been handled in a cleanly manner, is a good choice for an infant food. Because the fat has been taken out of the milk, some cream must be added. About three or four ounces of this sweet cream will bring one quart of buttermilk up to the nutrition level of whole milk.

Buttermilk may also be made whole, sweet milk by the use of Bulgarian bacillus tablets or an acidophilus culture. My leaflet, "Lactic Acid Feedings," suggests three different methods for preparing sour milk formulas. Send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to this department with your request for the leaflet.

Home-churned buttermilks are excellent to use when the child has a slight diarrhea. They also offer a protein food which, when fed without extra cream, is wholesome but not so fattening for the obese youngster.

Write Mrs. Eldred in detail about your problems of child care. A self-addressed, stamped envelope should be sent with your letter to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Popular Young Couple Wed At Metropolitan

In the presence of a large number of guests, Rev. F. E. Church performed the ceremony at the Metropolitan United Church on Saturday evening which joined in marriage Rachael Annie, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sexton, Linwood Avenue, and Mr. W. H. Chard, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Chard of Plymouth, England. The church was prettily decorated with spring flowers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked charming in her wedding gown of ivory satin made with a short train and worn with a lace jacket. Her veil of silk net was worn as a cap with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of roses, lilies of the valley and carnations.

Miss Nora Weeks was the only bridesmaid, in a pretty frock of pink silk crepe and a picture hat to match, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

Mr. Ernest Sexton supported the groom, and the ushers were Mr. Frank Stenton and Mrs. Garnet Ker. The wedding music was played by Edward Parsons, and during the signing of the register Miss Duv Williams sang "I Love You Truly."

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents which was converted into a bower of flowers for the occasion, a three-tier bride's cake centering the supper table. Mr. and Mrs. Sexton welcomed the many guests, the latter wearing a smart ensemble of navy blue silk and hat to match, and were assisted by Mrs. W. Weeks, aunt of the groom, in a most becoming gown of deep Wedgwood blue and hat en suite. They both wore coronas of sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

After a honeymoon on the mainland, Mr. and Mrs. Chard will make their home at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Sexton until their own is ready. The bride went away in an attractive suit of navy blue, with hat and accessories to match.

Among the many gifts received by the young couple was a standard lamp from Mr. and Mrs. Wilkes, the bride's former employer.

EMPIRE BUILDING DEFINED
BEFORE BUSINESS WOMEN

Following the report, Miss Lulu Moulton, president of the Washington State Federation, told the gathering of the progress of the ten-year plan adopted by the business clubs of the United States.

AT "WINDYHAUGH"
In the evening members of the local club and visitors to the number of about eighty gathered at the home of Mrs. J. H. Gillespie, "Windyhaugh," Fairfield Road, for a buffet supper. The reception rooms were artistically arranged with masses of schyzanthus, tulips of every hue, and other spring flowers, while a huge bowl of fragrant lilies of the valley centered the supper table.

An informal programme included pianoforte solo by Mrs. Gillespie, vocal numbers by Mrs. Harry Lassenby and Miss Beattie Richards, accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Stewart, and an amusing recitation by Mrs. A. F. Matheson.

M. A. Hansen to Play Friday

The Beaux Arts will present Miss Marguerite Van Voight, A.T.C.M., and Mrs. Marjorie Angus Hansen in a two-piano recital next Friday, May 26, at the Empress Hotel ballroom, commencing at 8.30 p.m.

The assisting artist will be Miss Beatrice Hicks of Vancouver. Her many friends here are eagerly anticipating the reappearance here of this well-known soprano. Miss Hicks will give two groups of songs.

Miss Van Voight, former president of the Beaux-Arts and prominent in all its activities, make her farewell public appearance at this concert, following which she will go to Toronto to take a three-year course at the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

The programme is an especially interesting one and provides a good deal of variety. For their second group, these artists will play the exquisite suite for two pianos by Orensky. Other principal numbers will include, "Unfinished Symphony" (Schubert), "Blue Danube" (Strauss), "Hungarian Rhapsody" (Liszt). Tickets may be obtained at Fletcher Bros.

Salvation Army
And Prohibition

Associated Press

New York, May 22.—Mrs. Ella A. Boole, president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, yesterday made public a telegram from Evangeline Booth, head of the Salvation Army in the United States, expressing that organization's opposition to repeal of the United States prohibition amendment. It said:

"The burden of relieving the wants of the impoverished home already is sufficiently serious for organizations like the Salvation Army and we feel it to be a calamity that the distress due to economic causes should be aggravated by moral delinquencies which invariably accompany the sale of alcohol."

H. A. Robinson returned to Ganges on Thursday after a visit to Vancouver. The Ladies' Aid of the United Church at Ganges held a miscellaneous sale and tea on Thursday afternoon at Ganges House, the home of Mrs. J. Moust. The attractively arranged stall of home-made dainties, including candy of various sorts, was in charge of Mrs. W. M. Moust and Mrs. E. Parsons. The work stall, with Mesdames Ross Young and Frank Stevens in charge, also did good business, and the tea committee, under direction of Mrs. R. Toyabee, were busily employed in serving the patrons of the tea tables, which were prettily decorated with lilac and other spring flowers. The helpers included Mrs. G. Dewhurst and Mrs. H. Moon. Among those attending were Mrs. J. P. Westman, Mrs. D. Winthrop, Mrs. E. H. Lawson, Mrs. Stuart Holmes, Mrs. H. Johnson, Mrs. C. W. Baker, Mrs. W. Wilson, Miss H. Dean, Mrs. J. Reid, Mrs. R. Nichol, Mrs. Higgs, Mrs. Murphy, the Misses Lee, Miss Glendenning and many others.

FIRES ON AND IN MOUNTAIN

Associated Press
Durango, Colo., May 22.—Flames leaped from Carbon Mountain, disintegrating peak of the Rockies, after an explosion had started avalanches on all sides of the big black mound yesterday evening.

The fire roared upward from a 315-foot fault in the side of the mountain and touched off a forest of pine trees. It spread rapidly and there were three separate fires. In addition to the trees, gases coming from deep down in the mountain were also on fire, and a cloud of smoke spread over this valley.

Geologists who have inspected the peak say the whole inside of the mountain, seamed with coal, probably is on fire.

The Carnegie Institute found 17,126 living fish, worms, shrimp and other small animals in a loggerhead sponge the size of a washtub.

More people ride on GOODYEAR TIRES than on any other kind

-and why!

They want Goodyear's greater mileage and the in-built quality which far outlasts the year's guarantee.

They are unafraid on Goodyears at speeds which would be dangerous on many other tires.

They trust Goodyear's scientific centre-tread grip to resist skidding and stop the car safely and surely.

They know that Supertwist cord construction conquers internal heat and defies trouble.

They realize that leadership and greatest volume enable Goodyear to build the best possible tires at the lowest possible prices.

They are proud to drive on tires everywhere recognized as the leading make.

They enjoy the service and savings offered by Goodyear's efficient, conscientious, reliable dealers.

U.S. URGED TO BEGIN AT HOME

Must Not Expect Too Much From World Economic Conference, Says R. Moley

Associated Press

Washington, May 22.—United States citizens have been warned by Raymond Moley, Assistant Secretary of State and intimate counsellor of President Roosevelt, against expecting too much from the World Economic Conference, and have been told the domestic policy is of paramount importance.

"In large part the cures for our difficulties lie within ourselves," he asserted in a public address delivered Saturday evening. He observed world trade was only a small percentage of this country's commerce and that it was up to each nation to set its own house in order.

At the same time he said "wise international co-operation can help indirectly and permanently to lead the world out of distress."

Where To Go To-night

On the Screen

Capitol—'Cavalcade,' with Clive Brook.

Columbia—'The California Trail,' with Buck Jones.

Dominion—'King Kong,' starring Fay Wray.

Empire—'The Flag Lieutenant,' a British Picture.

Playhouse—Spencer Tracy, in 'Me and My Gal.'

Crystal Garden—Swimming and dancing.

BUCK JONES AT THE COLUMBIA

"The California Trail," new Buck Jones-Columbia outdoor drama which opens to-day at the Columbia Theatre, reports have it is paved with thrills unusual for even a Jones "western." The film brings Buck to the screen in a dashing cavalier role. Doug Fairbanks stars. Helen Mack plays opposite the star. Luis Alberni, Charles Stevens and George Humbert appear in support. Lambert Hillyer, who made "Bandwagon" a success, also directed this one in addition to writing the screen play from a story by Jack Natofford.

Also on the same programme is George Brent in "Luxury Liner."

JOAN BENNETT AT PLAYHOUSE

"Me and My Gal," new Fox comedy-romance, is at the Playhouse Theatre to-day. Joan Bennett and Spencer Tracy, last seen together in "She Wanted a Millionaire," portray the leading roles.

Tracy enacts the role of a fresh young radio car detective whose adventures are said to be both laughable and stirring. Miss Bennett appears as the girl with whom he falls in love. Other favorites in the cast are Marion Burns, who scored successfully in "The Golden West," J. M. Macdonald, George Walsh, Noel Madison and Bert Hanlon.

The picture was directed by Raoul Walsh.

Also showing on the same bill is "The Unwritten Law," starring Oreta Nissen.

"CAVALCADE" AT CAPITOL

Diana Wynyard Gives Magnificent Performance in Year's Greatest Picture

Noel Coward's "Cavalcade," marvelously transferred to the screen by Fox Films, is at the Capitol Theatre to-day.

"Cavalcade" is absolutely unique as screen entertainment, so much so that it almost defies description by this commentator.

There is no "plot" in the constrained meaning of the word; it is instead a vast sequence of plots which Director Frank Lloyd has contrived to make always absorbingly interesting and with which he has achieved effects which fairly lifted the audience out of its seats.

It has woven the story of the Marryot family, father, mother and two sons, their servants, a butler and maid and their daughter, with a masterful hand against a background which encompasses historical events between 1900 and the present time.

He presents a terrific indictment against those responsible for the present muddled state of world affairs.

Pyroil
(Simply Add to Oil and Gas)

Saves MOTOR REPAIRS
HAVE YOU just paid a bill for piston replacement? New valves? Burned out bearing? Probably this could have been prevented had your car been Pyroil-treated.

Authorities agree that the greater percentage of motor repairs is due to the failure of oil to fully protect under various conditions of motor operation. Excessive heating, sudden changes of temperature, frequent "chocking," infrequent changing of oil... these are only a few of the many conditions which cause oil to thin out or "break," exposing metal to metal.

PYROIL PROTECTS When Oil Fails

Simply added in small quantity to your favorite oil and gas, PYROIL protects every moving metal part with a hard, cold, wear-proof surface that actually lubricates itself when oil fails!

Just this month the Royal Canadian Air Ministry gave permission for the use of Pyroil in Canadian airplanes in future.

Pyroil is a fluid for two years in Victoria and the ever-increasing number of enthusiastic users, private and commercial, make our best advertisement.

POLICE WILL BE INSPECTED
Annual inspection of the police department will be made to-morrow afternoon by the Board of Police Commissioners.

The members of the department will parade at 3.30 o'clock before Mayor Leeming, Magistrate George Jay and Judge P. S. Lammiman. The men will be attired in their summer uniforms and, for the first time, will wear the new helmets adopted as part of the regulation dress.

Particular interest centres around the new headgear, since it is a change back to helmets after two years with caps. Of special design, the helmets now secured will be satisfactory both to the men for comfort and to the public as far as appearance is concerned.

City Prosecutor C. L. Harrison will attend the inspection to demonstrate the advance made in reloading equipment for revolver cartridges. This is a new departure at headquarters, evolved under Mr. Harrison's direction, and is expected to be a marked step forward in developing marksmanship of the officers, providing ammunition which is of great accuracy as well as being cheaper in cost.

PRICE OF TEA TO TAKE JUMP
Export Restrictions in Ceylon, India and Java Went into Effect Saturday

"Tea prices here will have to advance before long as the first Indian sales of the season are scheduled for June 5 and prices asked on that occasion will be at least six or seven cents a pound higher than at the close of the season in February," according to J. W. Berry, managing-director of J. W. Berry Limited, Vancouver merchant-brokers and importers of tea. Mr. Berry is in Victoria to-day.

This rise, which Mr. Berry characterized as inevitable follows on tea export restrictions imposed by the governments of India, Ceylon and Java, and which went into effect last Saturday in the countries concerned. There has been such a surplus of tea of recent years and the prices have been so low that drastic action was necessary, and as a result a further increase in tea prices will follow on the five or six-cent rise of the last three months.

The new ruling limits tea exports in the three countries to 85 per cent of last year's figures, which, according to Mr. Berry, means that there will be 100,000,000 pounds of tea on the market this year. This decrease, he said, is sufficient to have a decided influence on prices.

A local dealer said this morning that tea merchants were also half expecting a sharp rise in the Canadian tariff on tea imports, which is now four cents a pound, but which might become five cents a pound, as it was several years ago. This, too, would stiffen prices substantially.

St. John's Minor W.A. will hold their regular meeting at 8 o'clock to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

THANKS JAPAN IS SINCERE

Recognition of Manchukuo All That Is Wanted, Says G. Ward Price

Neutral Zone Created Inside Wall Was Not Respected By Chinese, He Says

"Japan has no desire to face the international complications that would inevitably result with the occupation of Tientsin and Peking and it is my belief that she will not attempt to take those cities," said G. Ward Price, special correspondent of The London Daily Mail, on his arrival here to-day aboard the S. S. Empress of Asia from the Orient. "Of course, there is always the possibility that an unauthorized action on the spot might precipitate matters, but I don't think so. Fighting was practically over when I left."

Mr. Price made the world cruise with his mother and sister on the S. S. Empress of Britain and after reaching Shanghai received a cable from the S. S. Empress of Asia to cover the war in North China. He went into Jehol to look over the war area and is now returning to London, figuring that the assignment has lost its initial importance and convinced that the situation will soon be cleared up.

Edmonton Commercial Grads Have Eyes Set on Another Record

World-famous Girl Hoopsters Have Won 355 of 363 Games

Tennis Players Find Ball Does Strange Things in Mexico

WITH THE 1933-34 Canadian championship safely tucked away, Edmonton Commercial Grads today are laying plans for future conquests to break their record of seventy-eight consecutive victories. An ever-changing personnel has not interfered with the long string of wins to which J. Percy Page has been able to coach his queen of the basketball world. Besides adding the women's basketball championship in the recent Dominion series, the Grads still hold the world title.

Including the four games the Grads played in the semi-final and Dominion final, they now boast a record of 355 wins out of 363 games. Their string of seventy-eight consecutive wins was terminated in 1930 when they dropped one game to the Taylor-Trunks of Chicago. The Grads won the second game and took the series, in their last 112 games the Grads have won 111. Since their defeat by Chicago, they have won thirty-three games straight, including the 1933-34 Canadian series, and are now looking for another six wins to break their record of consecutive victories.

Victory over the Toronto Ladies in the Canadian final again demonstrated the guidance of Percy Page, coach of the Grads in the sixteen years of the club's existence, during which the girls have established a record unique in sports annals. The club has held the Alberta title on seventeen occasions, the Canadian title since 1922, and the international title since 1923. They won the official world's championship in Paris in 1924 and again in 1928, a title which the club still holds.

In this year's Canadian finals, the Grads outscored their opponents 319 to 168. And out of the four games played, they won three. With seventy-nine points to win, scoring honors, Gladys Fry, veteran of the Grads machine and centre player of the famed front line of Margaret MacBurney, Fry and Belanger, the Edmonton outfit won a victory by a score of 109 to 20 to set a record. They went one better just about two years ago when they trimmed the Toronto outfit 123 to 19, outscoring their opponents by 104 points.

Although the scores in the finals were one-sided they were still a long way off from the record defeat the Grads have imposed on any team. Over in Paris in 1928, the Edmonton outfit won a victory by a score of 109 to 20 to set a record. They went one better just about two years ago when they trimmed the Toronto outfit 123 to 19, outscoring their opponents by 104 points.

Some of the durable ball players like Lou Gehrig, with a long string of games to his credit, could take a lesson from Umpire George Hildebrand. "In twenty years I've never missed a single inning of a single game," quoth he. Three thousand and ninety-eight consecutive games without a miss. Twenty years without a miss. Look at it any way you like, it's still hard to see where ball players have anything on him for durability.

DOCKERS WIN PHOENIX CUP

Down Victoria City in Final Saturday Afternoon By 6-1; Miller Gets Three Goals

The Esquimalt Coast League football team added the Phoenix Cup to its possessions at the Athletic Park Saturday afternoon when they took Victoria City into camp, 6 to 1. The winners led 3 to 0 at half time and piled up a 6 to 0 lead before their opponents could tally.

The Dockers got off to a promising start when, after several near-scores, they went one goal up after about five minutes of play. Young Dick Miller, who with another second division player, Jimmy Worswick, were outstanding on the winners' front line, was responsible for the score. Playing at centre, he took a pass from "Scotty" Stewart and banged the ball into the net from close in.

Esquimalt kept on pressing and, shortly after the kick-off, Sweeney booted a free-kick, awarded for a foul on Wagland, right over the bar. Then Miller again severely tested goalie Chalmers. Play went down to the other end and de Costa saved a nice one. Miller then scored his, and his team's second goal on a neat pass from John Watt at inside right.

At this point the fans were given something new in football. The Esquimalt right half was idling with the ball in his own half and Pegin, City forward, calmly looked at his opponent instead of rushing him as the fans were shouting at him to do.

When the Dockers finally kicked the ball, Pegin reached up his hands and caught it. His team muffed looked rather amazed and Captain Bill Boyd waved him off the field. He came back in the second half for Davidson after Wyatt had replaced him.

THREE GOALS UP Chalmers got somewhat ruffled at the half but, after Worswick had taken a pass from "Scotty" Stewart, the City goalie claimed an offside and went up to centre field to tell the referee about it. The half ended with Esquimalt holding a 3 to 0 lead.

The City made several changes in the second half, but to no avail. The better team was not to be denied. Sweeney netted on a drive after taking a pass from John Watt and Miller got his third of the day a little later. Cook had come on for Bob Stewart, who had received a slight injury. John Watt got a well-deserved goal to put his team six in the lead and Tommy Smith saved the City from a whitewash just before the whistle blew.

Robb refereed and the teams were: Esquimalt—de Costa; Joe Watt, M. C. B. Carmichael, Sweeney, B. Stewart, A. Stewart, John Watt, Miller, Wagland, Worswick and Cook.

Battle of Youngsters For Club Title Results in 7 and 6 Victory

LAWSON FIVE UP AT LUNCH TIME

Harold Pretty Wins First Flight Honors; Prizes Are Presented

Stroking the green fairways of the Uplands course in close to par figures, Ken Lawson captured the club championship yesterday with a decisive win over Bobby Ford. The match was over thirty-six holes and Lawson won, 7 and 6.

The two smooth-faced youngsters, Lawson, seventeen years old, and Ford, sixteen, were followed by a large gallery as they battled for the club's highest honors and afterward received the plaudits of the members and friends at the prize-giving ceremony. Both are junior members of the club.

Lawson, who eliminated Bob Morrison, the former champion, last week, was never down on his clubmate after registering a birdie on the first hole by laying his second shot six inches from the pin. He took the second with a par four, the fourth with a par three, the fifth with a par four and the seventh with a par five to assume a commanding lead.

Ford, who appeared nervous at first with the gallery, steadied down on the homeward stretch and matched Lawson stroke for stroke, but was unable to cut into his lead. Lawson shot 76 on the first eighteen and Ford had 82.

In the afternoon Lawson again got away to a good start with a birdie three at the nineteenth. Bobby won it back on the twenty-first, but dropped the next two holes. Lawson hit a beautiful brassie shot to secure his par on the twenty-third. They halved the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth and then Ford found trouble on the twenty-sixth and Lawson went eight up. Bobby missed a three-foot putt for a win on the twenty-seventh and they halved the twenty-eighth. Ford snuffed a birdie two on the twenty-ninth when his opponent was dormant, but his comeback was too late and the match finished when they halved the thirtieth.

In the first flight final, Harold Pretty defeated his father, George Pretty, 5 and 4.

LONG DRIVING After the match the long-driving and approaching contests were held. Harold Pretty smashed one 280 yards off the tee for the longest ball in the driving, and Dr. C. N. Westwood won the aggregate for three balls for the second year in succession. He averaged 255 yards. Dave Randall took both the aggregate and the closest ball to the approaching.

C. D. Dillabough, the club president, presented the prizes at an outdoor ceremony, assisted by the captain, F. Wilkie.

Nanaimo Ball Team Wins Over Slingers

Nanaimo, May 22.—In two exhibition baseball games here yesterday Nanaimo defeated the Victoria Slingers 9 to 8 and 6 to 1. Carr and Jackson pitched for Slingers in the first game and Gallus for Nanaimo. In the second game Holden and Carr worked for the visitors while Watson was on the mound for Nanaimo.

In his workouts McLarnin has been doing much of his boxing against porters of the general specifications of Corbett, but has generally ignored the rule to keep moving to the left, a primary caution, grounded on the principle that by moving away from the punch its potency is thereby impaired.

Observers who are inclined to favor Corbett think the Fresno, Calif., Italian's style is going to bother Jimmy no end. Some of them think the champion will jab him off balance often enough to render useless McLarnin's dynamiting right hand.

JIMMY WANTS TITLE McLarnin, with $250,000 reported to be in deposit to his name in various banks, real estate holdings in the east, and a going business in Oakland, says it is the championship he wants this time. "Just to be champion," and evidently he figures that right hand is going to swell the McLarnin coffers.

"I'm not going to win this fight," Jimmy smiled back to the question of how he expects to win. "I think I can be as fast as I ever was for this one fight. I'm not worried about a defence against Corbett. I have been striving for perfect timing in my punches. If I have the timing down as I'd like it I expect to win the championship."

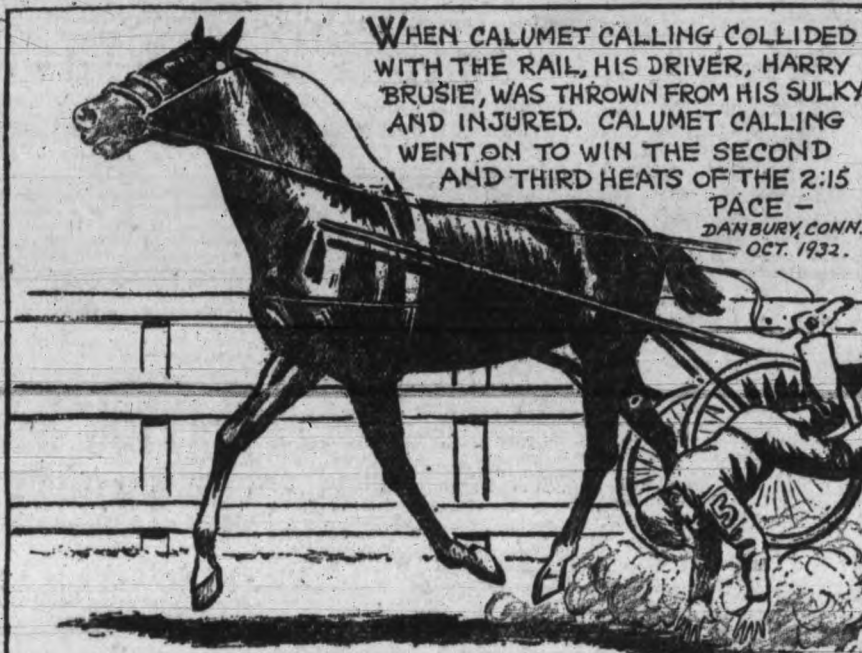

C.P.R. NET CLUB COURTS OPENED

Taking eight games to their opponents' six, the C.P.R. Tennis Club captain's team defeated that led by the secretary at the club's official opening yesterday.

About fifty members participated in the opening ceremonies and enjoyed refreshments following the event. Jack Clark was convener for the occasion.

McLarnin Figures His Hitting Power Will Beat Corbett

Vancouver Battler Perfects Timing in Training For Title Bout May 29

HAS HEART SET ON CHAMPIONSHIP

Is Not Worrying About a Defence; Corbett Backers Confident of Victory

Los Angeles, May 22.—Jimmy McLarnin and his shrewd manager, "Pop" Foster, undoubtedly have a some well-defined plan of battle for the Vancouver Irishman to carry to Young Corbett III, in the contest for the world welterweight championship here May 29, but to all appearances it doesn't embrace the orthodox system of defence against a southpaw.

In his workouts McLarnin has been doing much of his boxing against porters of the general specifications of Corbett, but has generally ignored the rule to keep moving to the left, a primary caution, grounded on the principle that by moving away from the punch its potency is thereby impaired.

THISTLES WIN SOCCER FINAL

Defeat Wests 2 to 0 in Deciding Combination Cup Second Division Game

Tightening up in the second half after an ineffective opening canto, Saanich Thistles took the Combination Cup final in the second division of the Pacific Coast League from Victoria West 2 to 0 before a fair crowd at the Athletic Park on Saturday afternoon.

The Wests more than held their own in the first half, but could not make their effort count in the goal columns.

Smart offensive plays by Noel Morgan, Thistles' first division player, featured the attack of the Saanich boys throughout the game.

Both squads worked hard without success in the initial stages of the fixture. Lambie almost scored for the Wests when he put in a good shot and Pears followed in close. It looked as if Morris swung the ball over the goal line as he attempted to clear, but the referee did not think so.

Near half time the Wests had the Thistles' custodian working, but he held out all their shots.

OPENS SCORING

Saanich got away to a good start following the interval. Morgan went through to drive in a stunning shot from inside the penalty area, but Stewardson was there to stop it. Campbell just missed on a good attempt seconds later and Saanich returned from the goal kick. Morris took the ball on the left wing and closed nicely. He passed to Williams in front of the net and Williams banged the ball home for the first tally.

Johnny Ewing replaced Mouatt when the half was well advanced.

The Wests went down to put in some neat headwork in front of the Thistles' net. Morris finally failed clear.

As the Thistles swung back to the attack, Morgan put in a good cross and Campbell flisted the ball in. The referee, after a consultation with the linesmen, disallowed the tally.

Noel Morgan closed the scoring about ten minutes from time when he dribbled through nicely on a pass from Dave Ewing and drove in a fast one.

STOPS TALLY Dave Mouatt prevented a sure tally against the Thistles when he headed clear a shot going into the Saanich net while Morris was still on the ground from stopping a low drive.

Ralph Aleck refereed and the teams lined up as follows:

Thistles—Morris; Campbell, Duncan; Ewing, Mouatt, Pierce; McCaig, Williams, Campbell, Morgan, D. Mouatt, and J. Ewing.

Victoria West—Stewardson; Pears; Thompson; Williams, Okell, Pears; Poyntz, Lambie, Painter, Rayalde and Patterson.

St. Louis Cards And Chicago Cubs Win Double Bills

Former Humble Giants Twice to Climb Into Third Place in National League

CUBS TAKE TWO FROM BROOKLYN

St. Louis Browns Score Second Win Over Yankees; Chicago Sox Move Up

St. Louis Cardinals since they began playing eastern teams about three weeks ago have won twelve games, lost six and to-day, having risen from seventh place, stand third in the National League standing.

Their double triumph over New York's Giants yesterday, 2 to 1, and 8 to 4, left them just a half game behind the second-place New Yorkers and three and a half behind the pace-setting Pittsburgh Pirates. Pittsburgh, coupled with Boston, had an off day.

Brooklyn Dodgers shot down to fifth place by the sudden comeback of Chicago Cubs who beat them twice, 7 to 6 and 6 to 3. Cincinnati Reds gains the fourth spot by splitting a bargain bill with Phillies, 4 to 2 and 3 to 1.

Chicago White Sox moved up to third place in the American League as Al Simmons crashed out two doubles that drove in four runs to set down Washington Senators, 6 to 0.

YANKEES BEATEN St. Louis Browns made it two straight over the world champion New York Yankees as they unleashed a fifteen-hit attack that gave them an 8 to 4 triumph. Boston Red Sox defeated Detroit Tigers 2 to 0 in the remaining American League tussle.

Brilliant pitching performances by Monty Weaver for Washington and Wally Herbert for St. Louis stood out in the American League Saturday. Weaver held the Chicago Sox scoreless while his mates converted fourteen safeties into seven runs. Herbert confined the Yanks to six hits as St. Louis won 4 to 2.

The western opposition continued tough for the Giants and Brooklyn as the weekly curtain fell on the National League. St. Louis trimmed the Giants 4 to 1, while Chicago turned back the Dodgers 3 to 1.

Victorians Lift Majority of B.C. Fighting Titles

Nine of Fifteen B.C. Wrestling and Boxing Championships Come to This City

D. Miller, Port Alberni, Pulls Surprise Win Over McKay in Flyweight Final

British Columbia amateur boxing and wrestling championships were crowned Saturday evening at the Bay Street Armories when the finals of the provincial championships were staged under the auspices of the Canadian-Scottish Regiment.

Victorian athletes did remarkably well and of the fifteen titles awarded nine of them came to this city—five in the boxing and four in the wrestling. Following the finals the trophies were presented to the winners and runners-up by Lieutenant Governor Fordham Johnson.

The complete list of new champions in both classes follows:

BOXING
Flyweight—D. Miller (Port Alberni).
Bantamweight—C. Crawford (Cassidy).

Featherweight—G. Hunter (Canadian Scottish).
Lightweight—J. Myers (Canadian Scottish).
Welterweight—W. Spaven (Tillamook Club).
Middleweight—G. Dent (Nanaimo).
Light-heavyweight—Louis Callum (Tillamook Club).
Heavyweight—L. P. Buxton (Garrahan).

WRESTLING
Bantamweight—R. Loeffler (Y.M.C.A.).
Featherweight—V. Politano (Tillamook Club).
Lightweight—P. Tyson (Y.M.C.A.).
Welterweight—J. Rickhoff (New Westminster).
Middleweight—G. Farmer (Y.M.C.A.).
Light-heavyweight—H. Knight (Vancouver Firemen).
Heavyweight—H. Knight (Vancouver Firemen).

ONLY ONE KNOCKOUT
In the boxing finals only one knockout was witnessed and that resulted in the heavyweight division. Sonny Buxton, R.C.A., putting Ernie Bowles, Victoria, away in the second round. Bowles was outclassed and after being knocked down twice in the first round and being saved by the bell, he failed to last the second frame.

The flyweight final saw somewhat of an upset when E. W. McKay, Cassidy, dropped the decision to D. Miller, Port Alberni. McKay, winner of the Victoria city championship, was favored to lift the provincial crown, but was unable to stand up under the stiff offensive tactics of his opponent.

An extra round was necessary to determine the middleweight title, which was won by George Dent, Nanaimo, from Ralph Hocking, Canadian Scottish. Both boys displayed a good knowledge of the art and for three rounds missed furiously. At the conclusion an extra round was ordered with the up-Island boy emerging winner, when Hocking was disqualified by the referee for hitting with an open glove after being warned.

In the featherweight division, G. Hunter, Canadian Scottish, made a fine comeback to take the decision from W. Folds, also from the local regiment. After being knocked through the ropes in the first minute, Hunter rallied and during the next two rounds punished his opponent badly.

Walter Spaven, Tillamook Club, was awarded the welterweight crown when J. Ross was unable to contest the final owing to a badly cut eye suffered in the preliminaries on Friday evening. Louis Callum, Victoria policeman, found little trouble lifting the light-heavyweight title, winning the decision from F. R. Nixon, Victoria. Nixon showed up fairly well in the first two rounds, but Callum had a big edge in the third and final frame to take a clear verdict.

DOUBLE VICTORY
In order to lift the lightweight honors Jerry Myers, Canadian Scottish,

Camerons Will Meet Tillamooks

To-night's Senior Amateur League ball game at the Athletic Park will see the league leading Camerons oppose the Tillamooks. The fixture will start at 6:15 o'clock. Camerons lead the league with two straight victories while the Tillamooks are in a second place tie with the Sons of Canada. McKinney is expected to take the semi-final, and then whipped Tom Emery, another Scottish man, in the final.

was forced to engage in two bouts Saturday night, and he showed up well in both. He won a close call over A. Webster, Canadian Scottish, in the semi-final, and then whipped Tom Emery, another Scottish man, in the final.

WRESTLING
The wrestling finals saw a number of closely-contested matches. In the middleweight division George Farmer, Y.M.C.A., scored a double victory to win. In the semi-final he pinned H. Luney, Y.M.C.A., after seven minutes, and then defeated C. Butorac, Trail, in the final, after three minutes and fifty seconds of grappling.

Pete Tyson, Y.M.C.A., engaged in two bouts and gained an even split. In the lightweight division final he defeated J. Petrie, Vancouver, with a fall in seven minutes. Camerons lost to J. Rickhoff, New Westminster, in the semi-final of the welterweight class. Rickhoff won with a fall in three minutes and then defeated Vic Stevens, Y.M.C.A., in the final.

The heavyweight final saw H. Knight, Vancouver fireman, repeat his victory on Friday night over H. McLeod, Vancouver policeman. This was a slow bout. The featherweight final resulted in V. Politano, Tillamook Club, winning from H. Tyson, Y.M.C.A. The bantamweight crown went to R. Loeffler, who pinned his clubmate, D. Tyson.

In an exhibition bout between two boys under 100 pounds, H. Spence Matthews won from V. Perrett. The boxing bouts were refereed by Angus McKay, while William Roper was the third man in the ring for the wrestling finals.

Burst of Selling
Near Close Sends
Wheat Prices Down

Winnipeg, May 22.—Pounded by a renewed burst of selling that entered the pit in final dealings, wheat futures dropped precipitately near the close of today's session of the Winnipeg grain market. Adding to earlier losses, values closed nearly two cents lower.

Weak throughout the session, futures presented no resistance as the last-minute selling swept over the pit. Values skidded sharply to come to rest at the final bell, 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 cents under the previous finish. May future at 60 1/2 to 61 1/2 cents, and October 63 to 63 1/2 cents.

Good export worked on the "breaks" failed to stem the downward rush. Foreign sales of Canada's wheat, mostly purchased in the final minutes of the session, approximated 1,000,000 bushels. But even this news was insufficient to halt the rush of Chicago traders as they unloaded a huge volume of offerings at the close.

Montreal, May 22.—With a few scattered exceptions, Montreal Stock Exchange listings turned lower to-day and lower were general at the close. Liquor stocks were the feature of trading. Both issues of Canadian Industrial Alcohol gained fractions, the "A" up 1/4 at 4 1/4 and the "B" 1/4 at 4 1/4.

Brazilian Traction, International Nickel, Canadian Pacific, Shawinigan Smelters, Bell Telephone, B.C. Power, Canadian Celanese and a dozen others showed losses, mostly of fractional dimensions.

Inspired by reports of a new agreement on a merger deal, alcohol issues were again brought into prominence.

Canadian Press.
Toronto, May 22.—The Standard Mining Market was strong only in spots to-day. Dome, Teck Hughes and McIntyre featuring the golds, while the silver stocks were strong and the base metals largely holding.

Nickel held around 15.25, unchanged, and Noranda gained 50c and the other shares of the group weakened a bit. Shares of the group were all up 2 to 15c. Mining Corporation, gaining 3, Nipissing 12, Castle 2 and Eldorado 4.

There Is No Other Handicap So Terrible to a Child As the Unintelligent Fond Parent Who Allows It to Grow Up Undisciplined, Over-indulged and Knowing No Law But Its Own Will

It is strange but true that, as a general thing, the more people love their children the crueler they are to them, and that a child can have no other such deadly enemy as an overly devoted mother.

If you will look about you at the men and women who have made failures of their lives, you will see that nine times out of ten the blame for it is to be laid at their fathers' and mothers' door. They were good material in the making. Spoiled brats who never got over their rearing.

Nature started them out with good bodies and good brains and there was no reason why they should not have been successes except that their parents spoiled them for life. They weakened their youngsters by pampering them with every indulgence. They made them arrogant and overbearing by letting them run their little universe while still in the cradle. They never denied them a single wish nor made them feel that they had a duty or responsibility to any other human being. They never even taught them to stand on their own feet.

They brought them up to believe that they were going to live in a sort of fairyland in which everything would be soft-padded for them; where they would always have plenty of money and never have to work or do anything they didn't want to, and where they would be kings and queens and everybody would know before them and remove every unpleasantness out of their paths. And when they came to grips with a hard-boiled world in which the battle goes to the strong and the victory to the hard fighter, the weaklings were simply trampled under foot and the egotists were crushed along with their pride. Their parents had not only not taught them to play the game, they had unfitted them so that they could never learn to play it.

This may seem a hard indictment of parents, but I never see any little undisciplined child being brought up to know no law but its own will, permitted to do as it pleases, over-indulged, that I do not think that its parents are doing it a greater wrong than malice itself could invent.

We dissolve in a perfect mush of pity over the poor parents whose children turn out badly. Isn't it just terrible, we say, about John A. having killed a man in some altercation or about Tom B. turning out to be a drunkard, or about Ben C. just never being able to make a living and his poor old mother and father having to support him?

And we can't understand it because the A's and B's and C's are such fine people, and they were such perfectly devoted parents and just made every sacrifice for their children. And John and Tom and Ben were such splendid little boys, so handsome and sturdy and smart. Who could ever have thought that they would have developed into a murderer or a drunkard or a loafer.

All the parents' fault. John was never taught to control his temper. Mother didn't even call it temper. She called it high spirits and encouraged it by giving in to his rages rather than go through a scene with him. And so when he was grown, in a moment of passion he killed. Tom was never taught to curb his appetite or deny himself any indulgence and he grew up with no strength to fight any temptation that assailed him. Ben was never held to any task or made to finish anything when he wearied of doing it and so he grew up into one of the temperamental men who are only interested in any job while it is a novelty, and who throw up their hands and quit when it gets to be the steady grind of monotonous work.

And we are so shocked and surprised when we hear that Sally is getting a divorce from her husband and has come back home with her four children to live on her poor old father and mother who have a scant living for themselves. Too bad, we say, and we recall how they were once so happy and how they were so proud of her when she was a college and gave her a debut party and a sports car and all the luxuries, and now we did hope that they would be able to have a few luxuries for themselves in their old age and take things a little easier, but with Sally coming back on them and those children they will be worse off than ever.

And we can't understand how it happened that Sally's marriage turned out a failure because she married such a fine, moral, upright young man, and he was so much in love with her. It seemed just one of the matches made in heaven.

But the explanation is simple enough. Mother and father unfitted Sally for marriage by the way they brought her up. From the day of her birth the whole household had revolved about her. She had been given the best of everything. She had been taught never to consider anybody but herself. She had been made utterly selfish and self-centered.

And when she found out that marriage is a give-and-take proposition; when she discovered that she would have to pull her weight in the boat; that she would have to sacrifice her own inclinations; that she would have to work too; that her husband was not the slave to her that her parents had been and that marriage was a job at hand labor instead of a picnic, why, she just threw up her hands and quit cold. She couldn't stand the gaff.

John and Tom and Ben might have been honored, successful men. Sally might have been a happy woman, with a good husband and home and her children growing up in the right atmosphere.

But they are all failures, as thousands like them are, because their parents wrecked their lives for them at the very beginning by spoiling them to death.

Little Trips Into Nature

VIC-CROWS
Sometimes we hear the saying "Wise old owl," but a better saying would be "wise old crow."

Baby Crows
Owls may look wise, but their actions do not give them the special title of "wise old owl." Crows, on the other hand, are among the most clever of all birds.

Flocks of crows gather in fields to eat what they can find—grub worms, sprouting corn and so on. Often there is one bird which perches on a limb or other high point; and it seems that the duty of this bird is to act as sentinel for the flock, giving a warning cry if any human being comes near. Next time you see a flock of crows in a field, try to find out whether there is a sentinel crow on duty.

Crows have black feathers and black eyes, but in bright sunlight their feathers seem to have greenish or violet color. A full-grown bird may have a length of nineteen inches. Farmers complain of damage which crows do to crops, and "corn thiefs" is a name used in some districts for the crow.

It is true that crows damage corn, and that is a sin from the human viewpoint. From the bird's viewpoint, there is nothing wrong to eating food where food is found.

Another complaint by farmers is that crows steal eggs and small chickens. In this case, too, there is justice behind the charge, except eat sprouting corn and the hen roost, there would be reason for men to make war against them and slay the whole tribe. Such a campaign was carried on in a region in New England. Crows were killed by the hundreds, and the time came when a crow could not be seen for miles around. What was the result?

The result was worse damage to the crops than ever before. Worms, and insects coming from worms, which had been kept down by crows proved so harmful that the farmers wanted the crows to come back.

Proper wire screening for poultry need corn will protect a farm from most, if not all, of the damage which crows can do. The birds do not like the smell of coal tar.

Crows have been kept as pets, and have proved very interesting. If there ever is such a pet around your household, guard the silverware and other shining objects. Crows like to carry off spoons, tin snips, glass marbles and the like—hiding them where they may not be found for a long time to come.

VARIED LIST ABOARD ASIA

World Tourists From London Among Interesting Passengers on Empress Liner

Several Japanese Business Men Arrive Here En Route to Chicago and London

Within sight of each other for nearly four days in the North Pacific, was the unusual experience of the liners President Cleveland and Empress of Asia, which docked here this morning from ports in the Philippine Islands, China and Japan. It is seldom that ships in the North Pacific ever catch sight of each other, but for four days after leaving Yokohama the passengers and officers of these two ships could see each other.

The President Cleveland left Yokohama one hour before the Empress of Asia. As soon as she was beyond the breakwater Capt. Maynard Griffith ordered full speed ahead and by the time the Empress of Asia pulled out from her dock the Cleveland was nearly twenty miles at sea. For four days the Canadian liner followed in the wake of the Empress of Asia, and finally passed the President. Passengers were greatly interested, and every day would line the rails of both ships. Several snapshots were taken of the progress of the two liners, running neck and neck across the ocean.

FASTEST TRIP
Capt. Griffith this morning looked up some of the North Pacific records to see just how close his ship came to breaking any. It was her fastest trip, but she takes third place among the ships of her own fleet. The President Cleveland is first, having crossed the ten years ago in nine days, on hour and seven minutes. Next comes the President Jackson in nine days, four hours and one minute. This voyage the President Cleveland crossed in nine days, seven hours and forty-three minutes. She averaged better than nineteen knots from the time she left Yokohama breakfast until she reached Seattle at 5:10 o'clock this morning.

The Empress of Asia crossed this time in about the same days even. This is only an hour slower than her record voyage, made shortly after she was commissioned in the North Pacific just before the Great War. She averaged better than twenty knots, being eight hours quicker in the crossing than the President Cleveland. Capt. A. V. R. Lovegrove, R.N.R., was in command of the Empress.

These two ships followed each other for 15,000 miles into Orient ports. They left Victoria the same day six weeks ago. The Asia forged ahead and reached Yokohama a day in advance of the Cleveland. Next they met in Shanghai, then in Manila, and on the return trip they followed each other to Seattle.

FIND STOWAWAYS ABOARD VESSEL

Two young Russians from Shanghai, one claiming to be United States born, were turned over to Canadian Immigration authorities here this morning when the Ss. President Cleveland docked from the Orient. They were sent to Seattle aboard the liner and will be dealt with there by United States immigration officials.

William and George Golovchak, nineteen and twenty-two years of age respectively, brothers, stowed away while the President Cleveland was at Shanghai. Going up the coast to Japan they mingled with the third class passengers, escaping notice because of the large number of persons on board.

Leaving Yokohama they hid in the lifeboats and day out gave themselves up to officers. The captain ordered them to work their passage across the ocean. If they cannot satisfy authorities in Seattle regarding their passports they will be sent back to Shanghai Saturday by the same ship.

Inbound Orient Ships Dock To-day With Silk And Silver Shipment

Empress Brings $1,000,000 in Silver and President Has 1,000 Bales of Raw Silk

Santa Paula Taking Much Freight Here

Ruth Alexander Due This Evening With Further Cargo; Docks Have Busy Day

Varied cargo from the Orient, worth several millions of dollars, was aboard the liners Empress of Asia and the President Cleveland, which were in port this morning from across the Pacific. An unusually large amount was left at Victoria from both ships and will be sent out of Victoria late this afternoon by the Ss. Santa Paula, en route to New York.

The three ships kept several gangs of longshoremen busy from 3 o'clock this morning when the cargo aboard the Asia commenced to come off. Silver from China, worth approximately $1,000,000 in gold, was left here on the Santa Paula. There were nearly 800 boxes of this precious metal transhipped here. The Asia also had over 400 bales of raw silk for the Grace liner. General cargo, amounting to 234 measurement tons, was left at Victoria from the inbound Empress liner. It was one of the largest parcels to be left here from an Empress in recent months. Generally most of the cargo aboard these ships go to Vancouver. For the mainland port the Asia had 1,889 tons of general cargo, including 1,105 bales of raw silk which will be shipped by train across Canada to New York silk mills.

MUCH RAW SILK
The President Cleveland had more than 1,000 bales of raw silk in her cargo of 384 tons of general for Victoria. All this silk will go out on the Santa Paula. The President also had a parcel for shipment over the United States to New York.

The Santa Paula is taking out one of the largest cargoes ever to be shipped direct from Victoria to New York. In addition to the silver and silk she will also load thirty-two tons of rabbit skins from Australia and a parcel of cotton from Hongkong. The rabbit skins arrived here yesterday from Vancouver, where they were discharged from the Ss. Niagara, from Australia.

Another fair amount of general cargo will be left at Victoria this evening when the liner Ruth Alexander docks at 11 o'clock from Los Angeles and San Francisco. She has 150 tons for Victoria, as well as thirty-five passengers.
